PREFACE

In consulting this list its limitations of date should be kept in mind. With a very few exceptions, to be mentioned later, it includes no works earlier than 1904, the date of the original Catalog, and less than a half dozen 1912 works, which have been added where there existed no book of earlier date that was equally good.

The general plan of the Catalog and the routine of cooperation in the selection of titles practically coincide with those of the original work (see p. 6, 8 of Editorial preface to Class list) except that the whole routine, from the preliminary selection to the final preparation for printing, has remained in the hands of one person. The list of cooperating librarians and experts has been much less extensive, owing to the fact that in the A. L. A. Booklist the editor had at hand a body of titles, covering nearly the whole period, which had already had the benefit of a certain amount of cooperative opinion.

All titles have been submitted to the publishers for latest information, so that the list should be dependable for prices. As a result of this examination by publishers a considerable number of useful works have had to be rejected because out of print, but, as a whole, the Catalog has suffered less in this respect than the 1904 publication did.

Classification. The sixth edition (1899) of the Decimal Classification has been followed. This decision was made on the understanding that the smaller libraries had not to any extent adopted the seventh edition. It is to be hoped that when the revision of the 1904 Catalog is undertaken there may be at hand a complete revised edition of the "D. C." simplified for the requirements of the smaller libraries. The larger libraries which have adopted the new edition need no help in classification. Titles have been more minutely classified than the small library practice demands, for two reasons: (1) the closer classification makes the list of greater value for reference purposes; (2) the majority of libraries using the Catalog subdivide more closely than the small library and it is a simpler matter to reduce a number than to expand it.

Subject headings. The addition of subject headings (not given in the Class list of the 1904 Catalog) was determined on before the decision to print only a class list was made. It has been a frequent request from the librarians of smaller libraries, who need help in this matter and who found it difficult to find the headings chosen for the Dictionary list in the 1904 Catalog. The new edition of the List of subject headings has been followed, with some additions. It is quite possible that not as many headings are suggested as many libraries use, an effort having been made to follow a medium course between the duplication and very full analysis that only the very small library can afford and the briefer entry of the large library, with its elaborate cross reference system. Where the subjects of analytics are easily ascertainable, they are only recommended. Neither the classification nor suggestions for headings should be taken too seriously. There are many books which can be classed with perfect consistency in any one of three or four places. The librarian alone can decide which is the proper place in her library. The same can be said of the choice of subject headings.

Notes. In quoting notes the phraseology has been freely changed for the sake of brevity, and no attempt has been made to indicate omissions.

Proportion by subject. While in the beginning the attempt was made to adhere fairly closely to the proportion of titles to each subject given in the 1904 Catalog, it was found impossible to do so without impairing the usefulness of the list. The output of books in the subjects grouped under Sociology has been so great, and the demand for them so heavy, that it seemed better to include a larger number than was originally planned rather than risk weakening the usefulness of the section. The greatest increase has been in Useful Arts, and this was intentional, since there is no division where the average librarian is more in need of help, nor where it is more difficult to find the "best book" on short notice. The proportions for the 1904 and the present Catalog are printed here for ease of comparison.

In the 1904 Catalog the children's books were included in the main list. The number of volumes cited for this Catalog does not include titles mentioned in the notes.

Special lists. Two special lists are incorporated in the Catalog, both in answer to definite requests. One is a selection of about 50 titles of religious books specially chosen for Catholic readers. Two preliminary selections were made, one by an assistant in the St. Louis Public Library at the request of the librarian, Dr A. E. Bostwick, and the second by Rev. W. J. McMullen of Pittsburgh, at the request of the librarian of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, Mr H. W. Craver. Both lists were then incorporated into a much more extensive one, covering all subjects, compiled by Mr William Stetson Merrill, of the Newberry Library. The final selection, limited with a few exceptions to religious books, was submitted to Archbishop Ireland, and at his request was examined by the Reverend J. A. Ryan, of the St. Paul Seminary, St. Paul, Minn.

The second list consists of about 50 titles of modern drama and books about it. It was impossible to get any unanimity of opinion on such a brief selection and the editor is aware that it will satisfy a very small proportion of libraries. It is allowed to stand, however, for the assistance it may give to the perplexed librarian of the smaller library. In most libraries the selection in this subject must be based largely on the local demand, and if activity in play-writing and reading continues to increase as rapidly as in the last two years the problem of selection bids fair to rival that of fiction.

Selection. It is hardly to be imagined that any one ever prepared a list of this character and extent without wishing to ask the indulgence of possible critics and to explain why it is so much farther from perfection than it was expected to be. It seems a fairly simple task to select 3000 titles from the books published in eight years, but a list based on the cooperation of about 75 librarians and 100 experts, all fully engaged with their own work, and selected, edited and prepared for printing in intervals of work having a prior claim, is bound to progress but slowly and to suffer many changes of fortune. One needs to have been this sort of clearing house of opinion but once to realize how far apart our libraries are in the matter of book selection. In many cases what is one library's meat seems to be another's poison, and one soon reaches the conviction that there are no "best books" on any subject for a library of any size—if librarians alone are to be consulted. Happily, professors, special students and experts in general are less at variance. It is only fair to say that the Fiction and Children's lists represent librarians' votes only. It is to be doubted if the Fiction, at least, would have retained the proper amount of "light reading" if it had passed through the hands of literature professors. If it does not prove a good "working" selection the editor will be greatly disappointed, for it was on that ground alone that many titles escaped the deleting pencil.

Acknowledgments. First the editor wishes to express her gratitude to the men and women who, without the special interest to be expected of librarians, gave of their valuable time—some of them with great generosity—in order to perfect the selection in their special subjects. That not all the titles recommended are included, nor all the titles receiving adverse criticism thrown out, does not argue that their opinions were not seriously considered, but is due to the many limitations of such a list—in number of titles, date, expense, availability, degree of difficulty or special nature of the books. In Philosophy and Ethics, thanks are due Professors Hugo Münsterberg, G. H. Palmer, F. G. Peabody, Joseph Jastrow; in Religion, Professors J. H. Ropes, F. G. Peabody, C. S. Thayer, and the Reverends W. J. McMullen, F. Bechtel, J. A. Ryan, P. B. Knox; in Sociology and Political science, Professors R. C. Brooks, T. N. Carver, W. M. Daniels, J. A. Fairlie, F. A. Fetter, C. R. Henderson, Chester Lloyd-Jones, E. A. Ross, H. R. Seager, W. W. Willoughby; in Education, Professors A. O. Norton and L. N. Wilson; in Language, Professors Brander Matthews and H. L. Koopman; in Mathematics, Professors E. B. Skinner and J. W. A. Young; in Astronomy, Professors E. E. Barnard and G. P. Serviss; in Physics, Professors C. E. Mendenhall, E. L. Nichols and John Trowbridge; in Electricity, Professors F. B. Crocker and A. E. Kennelly; in Chemistry, Professors Victor Lenher,

Cordial thanks are extended also to the librarians and library assistants, representing large and medium-sized libraries in all parts of the country except the extreme South, who criticized the preliminary lists. Individual mention must be made of those of whom assistance was requested in special subjects because of their extensive acquaintance with the literature: Mr A. C. Tilton, formerly in charge of the document department of the Wisconsin State Historical Library, who made the first selection of government documents; Mr E. H. Virgin, librarian of General Theological Seminary, New York, and Mr A. C. Zenos, librarian of McCormick Theological Seminary, Chicago, for criticism of the titles in Religion, and Mr W. S. Merrill, head classifier of the Newberry Library, Chicago, for assistance in the selection of Catholic books; Miss Elizabeth Baldwin, librarian of Teachers College, New York, and Miss Irene Warren, librarian of the School of Education of the University of Chicago, who criticized the books on Education; Miss O. M. Imhoff, of the Legislative Reference Department of the Wisconsin Library Commission, for aid in the selection of titles in Sociology and Government; Mr E. H. McClelland, technology librarian of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, and Mr E. D. Tweedell, reference librarian of the John Crerar Library, Chicago, who gave very generously of their time to the selection in Science and Useful arts; Mr G. W. Lee, librarian of Stone & Webster, Boston, and Miss L. B. Krause, librarian of H. M. Byllesby & Co., Chicago, for criticism of Engineering works; Miss C. R. Barnett, librarian of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and Mr Clarence Hean, librarian of the College of Agriculture Library of the University of Wisconsin, for criticism of Agriculture titles; Mr E. R. Smith, librarian of the Avery Architectural Library of Columbia University, and Miss Katharine Patten, librarian of the Minneapolis Athenaeum, for criticism of the Fine arts list; Miss L. M. Hooper, librarian of the Brookline (Mass.) Public Library, for criticism of the Music list; Dr R. G. Thwaites, director of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin, for criticism of the titles in American history and travel; Dr B. C. Steiner, librarian of Enoch Pratt Free Library, for criticism of the titles in American history and biography.

Acknowledgment is made of the services of the Annotation Section of the New York State Library, and especially of its head, Miss M. T. Wheeler, in selecting and mounting titles of current works to be used as a basis for the proposed supplement to the 1904 Catalog, from the time of the publication of that work to the summer of 1909, when with the decision to have the later catalog prepared directly under the auspices of the A. L. A. Publishing Board, this valuable material was transferred to the editor. Of even greater assistance have been the files of the annual Best books lists, which have been drawn on very considerably for notes.

To Mrs H. L. Elmendorf, vice-librarian of the Buffalo Public Library and president of the American Library Association, appointed from the A. L. A. Publishing Board as the committee of one to whom all questions of policy and details of execution could be submitted, grateful recognition is made for the willingness and promptness with which she has met all requests for advice or assistance. Gratitude is also due to the three regular assistants of the A. L. A. Booklist staff, to whom for some portion of each month during the past year this Catalog has meant an extra burden, to be met only by additional hours of work.

M. C. Clark $3 n

Text more elaborate than in other similar works, a certain amount of repetition being apparently introduced for the purposes of emphasis and review. H. S. Jacoby.

Cathcart and Chaffee's Elements of graphic statics gives special attention to principles of graphics as applied to mechanism and is designed primarily for students of mechanical and marine engineering (Van Nostrand, 1910, 312p., $3 n, 11–1151)

Graphic statics 9–28770/2

Merriman, Mansfield. Elements of mechanics; forty lessons for beginners in engineering. 1905. 172p. illus. Wiley $1 n

Textbook of rational mechanics, suitable for self-instruction and requiring a knowledge of only elementary mathematics.

Mechanics 5–3739/2

532 Hydraulics

Macmillan $4.25

Scholarly work, distinguished by clearness of statement, balance and general accuracy. Russell's Textbook on hydraulics (Holt, 1909, 183p., $2.50 n, 9–28050), an equally good text, is devoted to the more common and important problems of hydraulics, omitting hydraulic motors and other applications. Pittsburgh.

Hydraulics W8–47/2

534 Sound

Barton, Edwin H. Textbook on sound. 1908. 687p. illus. Macmillan $3 n

Fills the gap between elementary manuals and Rayleigh's Theory of sound. The chapters on various musical instruments are fuller and clearer than is usual in physical textbooks.

Sound 9–10049/2

535 Light. Optics

Clay, Reginald Stanley. Treatise on practical light. 1911. 519p. illus.
Macmillan $3.50 n

Full, up-to-date treatise, elementary from the specialist's standpoint but beyond the average reader's knowledge. Particularly good in its description of photographic lenses.

Newall, Hugh Frank. The spectroscope and its work (Manuals of elem. sci.) 1910. 163p. illus. Gorham 85c n

Dependable and clearly written little treatise, suited to the untrained reader. A more advanced work for students, practical, thorough and accurate, is Baly's Spectroscopy (Longmans, 1905. 568p., $2.80 n, 5–35675)

Spectroscope || Spectra A11–1869/3

Steinmetz, Charles Proteus. Radiation, light and illumination; comp. and ed. by J. Le R. Hayden. 1909. 305p. illus.
McGraw-Hill $3 n

Covers an enormous field in reasonable space and contains the sifting of a vast amount of study and reading together with some interesting original investigations. Engin. record

Radiation || Light || Lighting 9–27362/4

Wickenden, William Elgin. Illumination and photometry. 1910. 195p. illus.
McGraw-Hill $2 n

College textbook, emphasizing the scientific basis of illuminating engineering: the theory of light and optics, photometric theory and practice, illumination by electricity and gas, etc. Does not deal with practical details of manufacture or practice. Pratt

Lighting || Photometry 10–4069/3

536 Heat

Darling, Charles Robert. Heat for engineers: a treatise on heat with special regard for its practical applications (Finsbury tech. manuals) 1908. 430p. illus. Spon $5

Deals with the numerous applications of heat in modern industrial processes, and furnishes the information and data requisite for a correct understanding of the thermal phenomena involved.

Ogden, James Gordon. Heat (Pop. mechanics handbks) 1911. 119p. illus.
Popular mechanics 25c

Elementary work, explaining the modern scientific conception of heat, its effect, how it travels, the methods used in measuring it, and the modern application of its phenomena in engines and in the manufacture of liquid air, ice, etc.

Poynting, John Henry, & Thomson, J. J. Textbook of physics. v. 4: Heat. 3d ed. 1908. 370p. Lippincott $4.25

Additional volume in their Textbook of physics (in A. L. A. Catalog) The first volume has never been published.

Heat 11–35733/2

536.7 Thermodynamics

Ennis, William Duane. Applied thermodynamics for engineers. 1910. 438p. illus. Van Nostrand $4.50

Scholarly, up-to-date treatise, useful to engineers and students. Wider in scope than most books but less technical than Zeuner's Technical thermodynamics.

537 Electricity

Fournier d' Albe, Edmund Edward. The electron theory: a popular introduction to the new theory of electricity and magnetism; with a preface by G. J. Stoney. 3d ed. 1910. 327p. illus. Longmans $1.50 n

Presents an account of the theory in simple language and shows how it may be made to interpret in a satisfactory manner all the old familiar facts as well as more recent discoveries. Pittsburgh.

Electricity || Electrons 7–11034/2

Lodge, Sir Oliver Joseph. Modern views of electricity (Macmillan's manuals) 3d ed. 1907. 518p. illus. Macmillan $1.25 n

Explains without technicalities and illustrates as far as possible by mechanical models and analogies, the present position of scholars on electrical subjects. Original work (1892) out of print when A. L. A. Catalog was published.

Timbie, William Henry. Elements of electricity for technical students. 1910. 556p. illus. Wiley $2 n

Course for students in industrial and trade schools. May be used as an introduction to more advanced study, but is specially useful in preparation for practical work. Pittsburgh.

Electricity || Electric engineering 10–29535/3

537.5 Dynamical

Collins, Archie Frederick. Design and construction of induction coils. 1909. 272p. illus. Munn $3 n

Detailed explanation of the successive steps in the construction of eight different sizes of induction coil. Useful to both the amateur and the professional. Armagnat's Theory, design and construction of induction coils (New ed., tr. & ed. by O. A. Kenyon, McGraw-Hill, 1908, 216p., $2 n, 8–17739) is a more theoretical treatise and has less general interest, but contains an excellent annotated bibliography.

Induction coils 9–12097/2

537.53 Radium and radioactivity

Cameron, Alexander Thomas. Radiochemistry. 1910. 174p. illus. Appleton $1 n

Gives in convenient form a summary of the results obtained by the author and other investigators on such points as the life period of radium, its atomic weight, its chemical effects and its production of helium. Athen.

Radiochemistry || Radioactivity. Analytic: Bibl. A11–1404/4

Makower, Walter. Radioactive substances, their properties and behavior (Internat. sci. ser.) 1908. 301p. illus. Appleton $1.75 n

Radioactivity 8–33947/2

538 Magnetism

Underhill, Charles Reginald. Solenoids, electromagnets and electromagnetic windings. 1910. 218p. illus. Van Nostrand $2 n

Valuable addition to the meager literature of the design of electromagnets, in which the author embodies the result of much original research. Pratt

Electromagnets 10–16243/2

540 Chemistry

Ostwald, Wilhelm. Fundamental principles of chemistry; authorized translation by H. W. Morse. 1909. 349p. Longmans $2.25

Deals with the laws and principles. Not light reading, but clear and attractive in style and well adapted to clear the mind of many vague and indefinite notions. Engin. news.

His Introduction to chemistry (Wiley, 1911, 368p., $1.50 n, 11–6454) is more elementary, giving special attention to first principles. Revised translation of Schule der Chemie.

—— & Morse, H. W. Elementary modern chemistry. 1909. 291p. illus. Ginn $1 n

Very elementary in treatment, presenting only the simpler laws and illustrating them with about 200 simple experiments and good diagrams. For beginning students.

Philip, James Charles. The romance of modern chemistry (Romance ser.) 1909. 348p. illus. Lippincott $1.50 n

Simple introduction for the general reader, avoiding all technicalities. Gives applications of chemistry to every-day life and modern industries.

Chemistry, Inorganic || Chemistry, Technical W9–331/4

Thorpe, Sir Thomas Edward. History of chemistry (Hist. of the sci.) 1909–10. 2v. illus.
Putnam 75c n ea

Brief, popular account giving only the important facts in chemical history from earliest times to the middle of the nineteenth century.
Chemistry—History 10–180/2

541 Theoretic chemistry

Arrhenius, Svante August. Theories of chemistry; ed. by T. S. Price. 1907. 212p.
Longmans $1.75 n

Various theories and hypotheses critically examined and exhibited in their proper relationship and subordination. Bears the stamp of a mind of uncommon power applied to the matter in hand with a balance and sobriety of judgment no less rare. Nature.
Chemistry 7–38566/2

Jones, Harry Clary. Introduction to physical chemistry. 1910. 279p. illus.
Macmillan $1.60 n

Brief treatment, avoiding calculus as far as possible. Excellent chapter on solutions. Pittsburgh.
Chemistry, Physical 10–2957/2

Pöschl, Viktor. Introduction to the chemistry of colloids; tr. from the 2d German ed. by H. H. Hodgson. 1910. 114p.
Lippincott $1.25 n

Elementary manual, dealing with properties and preparation of colloids and with application of colloid chemistry. A fuller and more technical treatise is Zsigmondy's Colloids and the ultramicroscope (Wiley, 1909, 245p., $3, 9–12628)
Colloids || Chemistry A11–2173/3

Thompson, Maurice de Kay. Applied electrochemistry. 1911. 329p. illus.
Macmillan $2.10

Accurate, logical text, of value to students, chemists and engineers. Besides theoretical discussion, there are brief descriptions of many processes.
Electrochemistry 11–13349/2

543 Analysis

Leach, Albert Ernest. Food inspection and analysis. 2d ed. 1909. 954p. illus. 26cm
Wiley $7.50

The acknowledged standard, revised and enlarged to embody the improvements in methods since the first edition (1904) and specially to recognize the progress in food-control efforts in the United States during recent years. Pratt.
Food—Analysis || Food adulteration and inspection 9–28772/3

Sherman, Henry Clapp. Chemistry of food and nutrition. 1911. 355p. illus.
Macmillan $1.50 n

Fairly technical text, dealing mainly with food values and food requirements of man. Valuable data in appendix and excellent references.
Food—Analysis || Nutrition || Food—Analysis —Bibl. 11–1979/4

Treadwell, Frederick Pearson. Analytical chemistry; authorized translation by W. T. Hall. 1906–11. 2v. illus.
Wiley, v. 1, $3; v. 2, $4

Standard work, characterized by simplicity of arrangement and judicious choice of methods, presenting only those most approved. Much more condensed than Fresenius' classic work, but sufficiently comprehensive to be valuable both for reference and as a student's text.
Chemistry—Analysis 7–413/2

546 Inorganic chemistry

Smith, Alexander. Introduction to general inorganic chemistry. 1906. 780p. illus.
Century $2.25 n

Best modern textbook on general chemistry for advanced students. Preferable to Remsen (in A. L. A. Catalog)
Chemistry, Inorganic 6–7325/2

547 Organic chemistry

Holleman, Arnold Frederick. Textbook of organic chemistry; tr. by A. J. Walker, assisted by O. E. Mott. 3d ed. 1910. 599p. illus.
Wiley $2.50

Well written, short textbook giving prominence to theoretical discussion. Pittsburgh.
Chemistry, Organic 10–17021/2

Stewart, Alfred Walter. Recent advances in organic chemistry. 1908. 296p.
Longmans $2.50 n

Interesting survey of the modern trend, confined mainly to researches during the past 10 years. Chapter on chemical action of light. Pittsburgh.

Bayley, William Shirley. Elementary crystallography. 1910. 241p. illus.
McGraw-Hill $2 n

The best text for beginners not only from scientific standpoint but also in arrangement and method of presentation.
Crystallography 10–21624/2

Spencer, Leonard James. The world's minerals. 1911. 272p. illus. Stokes $2 n

Popular work, describing 116 important minerals, with mention of their practical uses, importance as ores, as precious and semi-precious stones, etc. Fairly accurate colored reproductions of 40 minerals.

550 Geology

Blackwelder, Eliot, & Barrows, H. H. Elements of geology. 1911. 475p. illus. maps. Amer bk co. $1.40

Accurate, simple and well illustrated text, giving special attention to physiography.

Chamberlin, Thomas Chrowder, & Salisbury, R. D. A college text-book of geology (Amer. sci. ser. Adv.) 1909. 978p. illus. maps. Holt $3.50 n

Excellent textbook, well adapted to general reading and profusely illustrated with maps, diagrams and photographs. More useful to the average library than their standard and comprehensive Geology (Holt, 1904-6, 3v., $4 n, 4–6925)

Geikie, Sir Archibald. The founders of geology. 2d ed. 1906. 486p. Macmillan $3.25 n

New edition of a thoroughly good book (1897). out of print when A. L. A. Catalog was published. Brings into deserved prominence the labors of certain masters whose worth had been overlooked and treating with just and drastic criticism the claims of others who have attained unmerited celebrity. Nation.

Geologists || Geology GS6–406/4

551 Physical and dynamic geology

Fairbanks, Harold Wellman. Practical physiography. 1907. 542p. illus. maps. Allyn $1.60

Elementary text which in its descriptions and illustrations of physiographic processes is well adapted to general reading. Specially good for western section of the United States.

Physical geography 7–4830/2

Hobbs, William Herbert. Earthquakes: an introduction to seismic geology. 1907. 336p. illus. Appleton $2 n

Readable and fairly up-to-date work, giving the conclusions of author's long-continued study, but somewhat misleading for readers not having any previous knowledge.

Earthquakes 7–39003/2

Newbigin, Marion I. Modern geography (Home univ. lib. of mod. knowl.) 1911. 256p. illus. Holt 50c n

Suggestive volume, interestingly written, which though European in tone is not without value for readers in this country. R.E.Dodge.

Salisbury, Rollin D. Physiography (Amer. sci. ser. Adv.) 1907. 770p. illus. maps. Holt $3.50 n

Excellent, comprehensive text for mature students, based on many years' experience in university teaching. Readable and well furnished with maps and illustrations. In his Elementary physiography the same material has been abbreviated and simplified for a high-school course (Holt, 1910, 359p., $1.30 n, 10–22102)

Physical geography 7–16499/2

551.5 Meteorology

Gannett, Henry, comp. Dictionary of altitudes in the United States (Geological survey, bulletin 274) 4th ed. 1906. 1072p. Supt. of Docs. paper 60c

Alphabetic list by states and under states by locality, of towns, hills, lakes, mountains, etc. Gives locality, authority for data and elevation above sea level. Greatly enlarged edition.

U. S.—Altitudes GS6–397/2

Moore, Willis Luther. Descriptive meteorology. 1910. 344p. illus. Appleton $3 n

Comprehensive introduction intended primarily for young men entering the service. Meteorology is taken in its broad sense, to include the whole range of phenomena of the air; the emphasis is, however, on weather forecasting.

Meteorology 10–9494/2

Ward, Robert De Courcy. Climate, considered especially in relation to man (Sci. ser.) 1908. 372p. illus. maps. Putnam $2 n

Interesting historical material as well as a very clear-cut and informing presentation of the facts of climate as now known. Educ. rev.

Climate || Acclimatization 8–12801/3

552 Lithology

Pirsson, Louis Valentine. Rocks and rock minerals. 1908. 414p. illus. Wiley $2.50 n

Concise, practical treatise, presenting the elements of petrology without use of the microscope. The best single volume for the public library.

Rocks || Mineralogy 8–19075/3

553 Economic geology

Bain, Harry Foster, ed. Types of ore deposits. 1911. 378p. illus. Mining & scientific press $2 n

Collection of trustworthy papers from various sources, each dealing with some typical deposit or some representative problem of ore deposition, and each by an authority.
Ore deposits 12–717/2

Merrill, George Perkins. Non-metallic minerals; their occurrence and uses. 2d ed. 1910. 432p. illus. maps. Wiley $4

Compilation of information concerning minerals of value other than as ores of metals. Valuable work. Pittsburgh.
Mineralogy 10–27684/2

Shaler, Nathaniel Southgate. Man and the earth. 1905. 240p. Duffield $1.50 n

Interesting survey of man's relations and obligations toward the earth's economic resources, with a forecast of the period when the most important of these will be exhausted. N.Y.
Natural resources || Geology, Economic. Analytics: Mines and mineral resources || Food supply || Soil fertility || Fisheries || Preservation of landmarks, scenery, etc. 5–39133/9

553.2 Carbon series

Tower, Walter Sheldon. Story of oil. 1909. 270p. illus. Appleton $1 n

Untechnical account of oil and the evolution of the petroleum industry in this country, describing processes of refining crude oil and giving the uses of petroleum products.
Petroleum. Analytic: Standard Oil Company 9–16457/4

553.8 Gems. Ornamental stones

Wodiska, Julius. Book of precious stones. 1909. 365p. illus. Putnam $2.50 n

Popular treatise by a practical jeweler, giving a chapter to each of the precious and semi-precious stones. More full and satisfactory on the artistic and commercial than on the geological side. Numerous illustrations from photographs. Goodchild's Precious stones is a more technical guide, giving composition and physical properties (Van Nostrand, 1908, 319p., $2 n, 8–32511)
Precious stones. Analytic: Bibl. 9–30640/4

557 Geology of North America

Ries, Heinrich. Economic geology, with special reference to the United States. Rev. ed. 1910. 589p. illus. maps. Macmillan $3.50 n

Standard work, giving concise, accurate information about minerals, their distribution, use and statistics of production. Considerably enlarged over original (1905)
Geology, Economic || Mines and mineral resources 10–17928/3

Russell, Israel Cook. North America (Appleton's world ser.) 1904. 435p. illus. maps. Appleton $2.50 n

Concerned chiefly with physical geography, and with distribution of plants and animals. Appended chapters on geology and aborigines. N.Y.
North America || Physical geography—North America 4–14166/3

Sternberg, Charles Hazelius. The life of a fossil hunter (Amer. nature ser.) 1909. 286p. illus. Holt $1.60 n

Experiences of the foremost collector of fossils in this country in his search for specimens. Of first interest to scientific readers. but so full of adventure and entertainingly written as to make it a good book for general reading.
Paleontology 9–5110/3

566 Vertebrates

Hutchinson, Henry Neville. Extinct monsters and creatures of other days. 1911. 329p. illus. Appleton $3 spec. n

Condensation and revision of two books published in the early 90's: Extinct monsters (long out of print) and Creatures of other days. Well written, popular account of the history, discovery, range, distribution, habits and botanical and climatic surroundings of some of the larger extinct animals.
Animals, Extinct || Paleontology 11–35444/3

569 Mammals

Osborn, Henry Fairfield. Age of mammals in Europe, Asia and North America. 1910. 635p. illus. maps. Macmillan $4.50 n

Very exhaustive, accurate and valuable treatise on the mammals of the Cenozoic period, particularly in North America, Europe, Asia and Africa. Fully illustrated.
Mammals || Paleontology 10–24457/3

570 Biology

Locy, William Albert. Biology and its makers. 1908. 469p. illus. Holt $2.75 n

Untechnical account of the rise and progress of biology, written around the lives of the great biological leaders, and giving estimates of their work and summaries of the controversies with which their names are connected.
Biology. Analytics: Evolution || Bibl. 8–21045/4

573 Natural history of man

Boas, Franz. The mind of primitive man. 1911. 294p. Macmillan $1.50 n

Readable and valuable study of ethnopsychology, dealing with racial prejudices, influence of environment and heredity, comparison of mental traits of primitive and civilized man, race and language, etc., and a final chapter on race problems in the United States.

575 Evolution

Geddes, Patrick, & Thomson, J. A. Evolution (Home univ. lib. of mod. knowl.) 1911. 256p. Holt 50c n

Very simple and clear résumé of the different theories and evidence in favor of each, and discussion of the relation between social progress and evolution. The most important work on the general subject of evolution is Weismann's Evolution theory (Longmans, 1904, 2v., $8.50 n, 5–6008) It is not difficult for readers having a fairly good basis of knowledge and should be in libraries used by students.

Evolution || Thomson, John Arthur. Analytic: Bibl. 11–18828/4

Jordan, David Starr, & Kellogg, V. L. Evolution and animal life. 1907. 489p. illus. Appleton $2.50 n

Clear, readable discussion of the facts, processes and theories relating to organic evolution. Written for a university lecture course but not too technical for the average reader.

Punnett, Reginald Crundall. Mendelism. 3d ed. 1911. 192p. illus. Macmillan $1.25 n

Thorough exposition of a difficult and technical subject, yet as entertaining as a novel. It lacks the encyclopedic completeness and the bibliographic features of Bateson [Mendel's principles of heredity, Putnam, 1909, 396p., $3.50 n, Agr9–1516] but for the beginner or general reader who wants within moderate compass a sane and well balanced account of what has been accomplished in this field, the book is almost ideal. Science.

Thomson, John Arthur. Darwinism and human life: the South African lectures for 1909. 1910. 245p. Holt $1.50 n

Authoritative, interesting and easily comprehended statement of the history and present status of evolution. The last chapter is a sane discussion of the possibilities of eugenics.

A10–591/6

—— Heredity (Sci. ser.) 1908. 605p. illus. Putnam $3.50 n

Heredity. Analytic: Bibl. 8–19029/3

578 Microscopy

Kerr, Richard. Nature through microscope and camera. 1905. 197p. illus. Lond. Religious tract soc. 6/ n

Illustrates by well chosen and very good photomicrographs the wonders and beauties of structure that the microscope reveals. Pleasant explanatory text.

Spitta, Edmund Johnson. Microscopy: the construction, theory and use of the microscope. 2d ed. 1909. 524p. illus. Dutton $4 n

For practical workers with the microscope, treating its theory and use and giving sound information on the selection of microscopes for various purposes.

Microscope and microscopy Agr8–140/2

580 Botany

Coulter, John Merle. Text-book of botany for secondary schools (Twentieth cent. text-bks) 1906. 365p. illus. Appleton $1.25 n

Excellent high school text.

Green, Joseph Reynolds. History of botany, 1860–1900. 1909. 543p. Oxford univ. $3.15 n

Continuation of Sach's History of botany (in A. L. A. Catalog) A well balanced and trustworthy treatise, but poorly indexed.

Botany—History. Analytic: Bibl.

Apgar, Austin Craig. Ornamental shrubs of the United States. 1910. 352p. illus. Amer. bk co. $1.50

Convenient guide to the hardy, cultivated shrubs. More complete and compact than Keeler's Our northern shrubs but less attractive to the average reader both in text and illustrations (Scribner, 1903, 521p., $2 n, 3–11679)

Shrubs 10–16718/2

Henshaw, Mrs Julia W. Mountain wild flowers of America. 1906. 384p. illus. Ginn $2 n

Short descriptions of the vegetation and 300 plants of the Rockies, specially the Canadian Rockies. The flowers are classified according to color. Fine illustrations.

Flowers || Alpine plants 6–25647/4

Keeler, Harriet Louise. Our garden flowers. 1910. 550p. illus. Scribner $2 n

Handbook similar in appearance and character of information to such popular wild flower manuals as Mrs Parsons' How to know the wild flowers. Arranged by genera and species, with index of common and scientific names, glossary and abundant illustrations. N.Y.

Flowers 10–13152/3

Peterson, Maude Gridley. How to know wild fruits. 1905. 340p. illus. Macmillan $1.50 n

Guide to about 200 of the more noticeable fruited plants of the northeastern United States, descriptions being arranged by color of fruits. Illustrations, list of families and species, glossary and indexes.

Botany || Fruit 5–15672/4

Hough, Romeyn Beck. Handbook of the trees of the northern states and Canada east of the Rocky Mountains. 1907. 470p. illus. Author $6

Valuable work, giving a popular description of appearance and habit of 208 species, concise scientific descriptions and remarkably fine halftones showing the whole life of the tree. It is rather expensive for the average library and poorly bound. Sargent's Manual of the trees of North America, exclusive of Mexico (Houghton, 1905, 826p., $6 n, 5–8739) is a systematic handbook containing brief descriptions of about 600 trees, with excellent drawings. A less popular and more systematic treatment than Hough.

Weed, Clarence Moores. Our trees: how to know them; photographs from nature by A. I. Emerson. 1908. 295p. illus. 25x20½cm Lippincott $3

138 photographs of trees from nature, by A. I. Emerson, with a guide to their characteristics, distribution and culture by C. M. Weed. Plates show bud, leaf, flower and fruit sprays and small view of tree under winter conditions. Text, opposite each plate, specially well suited to nature study work.

U. S. President's homes commission. Reports: message from the president . . . together with resolutions and recommendations adopted by the commission (U. S. 60th Cong., 2d sess. Senate doc. 644) 1909. 381p. illus. Supt. of Docs. paper 45c

Considers the building of model houses, improvement of existing houses, elimination of insanitary and alley houses, social betterment and building regulations.

Tenement houses || Poor 9-35223/3

614.3 Adulterations

Spargo, John. The common sense of the milk question. 1908. 351p. illus. Macmillan $1.50 n

Discusses simply and practically the importance of milk as food for infants, the dangers from filth and milk-borne diseases, remedial measures and a program of practical reform. Jensen's Essentials of milk hygiene (Lippincott, 2d ed. 1909, 275p., $2 n, 9-4184) treats of milk from standpoint of sanitary supervision, and takes up its chemistry, proper protection, relation to various diseases and regulation of the milk business. N.Y.

Milk supply 8-12780/3

U. S. Hygienic laboratory. Milk and its relation to public health (Bulletin 56) Rev. ed. 1909. 834p. illus. Supt. of Docs. paper $1

Discusses milk as a means of infection, causes of impurity, infants' and certified milk, ice cream, and municipal regulation of milk supply.

Milk supply Agr9-8/2

Wiley, Harvey Washington. Foods and their adulteration. 2d ed. 1911. 641p. illus. Blakiston $4 n

Authoritative information, complete and detailed, concerning the origin, manufacture and composition of food products, common adulterations, dietetic value, and national food laws and regulations. In this edition have been added simple tests for ordinary adulterations which may be made in the household. For many purposes Olsen's Pure foods, their adulteration, nutritive value and cost (Ginn, 1911, 210p., 80c n, 11-22864) is sufficient. It collects in popular form results and conclusions from investigations and contains a series of test experiments.

Food || Food adulteration and inspection 11-2502/3

Chapin, Charles Value. Sources and modes of infection. 1910. 399p. Wiley $3 n

Discusses the principles of sanitary and epidemiological science as applied to city welfare. Intended primarily for health officers and physicians, but sufficiently simple for general reading.

Contagion and contagious diseases || Hygiene, Public 10-17005/3

Doane, Rennie Wilbur. Insects and disease (Amer. nature ser.) 1910. 227p. illus. Holt $1.50 n

Accurate, scholarly and most complete popular discussion of the way in which insects may spread or cause disease. Of interest alike to general reader and specialist.

Insects as carriers of contagion. Analytic: Bibl. 10-24455/3

Van Shaack, David, ed. Safeguards for the prevention of industrial accidents. 1910. 147p. illus. Aetna life insurance co. 50c

Discusses factory sanitation and describes and illustrates representative safety devices. Most of the suggestions are of a general nature and applicable to a large number of industries. Gives sample rules and regulations, instructions to employees, factory warning notices, etc. Pittsburgh.
Accidents, Industrial || Safety devices

616 Pathology. Diseases. Treatment

Emerson, Charles Phillips. Essentials of medicine. 1908. 383p. illus. Lippincott $2 n

General manual on diseases, written primarily for medical students and nurses, but very useful as a reference work for the educated general reader.
Medicine || Diseases 8-35859/3

Hutchinson, Woods. Preventable diseases. 1909. 442p. Houghton $1.50 n

Popular, readable articles describing the organization of the "body republic" and its defensive machinery, and considering specific diseases and their prevention.
Diseases || Medicine || Hygiene 9-30130/4

Oliver, Thomas. Diseases of occupation from legislative, social and medical points of view (New lib. of medicine) 1908. 427p. Dutton $2.50 n

Simple, untechnical description of the diseases due to gases, poisons, dust, etc. Contains important chapters on dangers from compressed air, mining and electricity. A valuable document is the 1911 Report (219p., free) of the Illinois Commission on occupational diseases.
Occupations—Diseases and hygiene || Occupations, Dangerous 8-27120/3

616.2 Diseases of the respiratory system

Hutchinson, Woods. The conquest of consumption. 1910. 138p. illus. Houghton $1 n

A "message of hope" more valuable for its tonic qualities than for specific directions, although its general recommendations are explicit and in accord with the latest scientific thought.
Tuberculosis 10-7911/3

Knopf, Siegmund Adolph. Tuberculosis a preventable and curable disease. 1909. 394p. illus. Moffat $2 n

Readable, comprehensive treatise by an authority, discussing infection and hygiene, duties of the patient, family, municipal, state and federal authorities, employers, educators, etc., and the home adaptation of sanatorium treatment. 115 illustrations picture methods of prevention and cure.
Tuberculosis. Analytic: Open-air treatment
9-17599/3

Otis, Edward Osgood. The great white plague, tuberculosis. 1909. 321p. Crowell $1 n

Optimistic discussion of causes, symptoms and treatment, a review of federal, state and municipal organization for extermination of the disease and a forecast of the future of the movement. Contains little not in Knopf (above) but is better adapted for home use, being simpler, less detailed and easier to handle.
Tuberculosis 9-24474/3

617 Surgery

Pilcher, James Evelyn. First aid in illness and injury. 9th ed. 1905. 356p. illus. Scribner $2 n

Useful little handbook giving in untechnical language clear and explicit directions. A briefer work is Hartung's Barton first aid text-book (Nat'l first aid ass'n of Amer., 2d ed. 1912, 134p., 80c, 6-10010); a fuller one Morrow's Immediate care of the injured (Saunders, 2d ed. 1912, 354p., $2.50 n, 12-4809)
First aid in illness and injury || Accidents

620 Engineering

In many subjects the most comprehensive single-volume treatment is to be found in the International Library of Technology (International textbook co., Scranton, Pa., $5 each) These volumes are designed for elementary students, and are concise and reliable and under constant revision.

Corbin, Thomas W. Engineering of today. 1910. 367p. illus. Lippincott $1.50 n

Fairly full and well illustrated popular presentation of the field of engineering, specially of those branches that are most advanced.
Engineering W11-4/2

Fowler, Charles Evan. Law and business of engineering and contracting. 1909. 162p. illus. McGraw-Hill $2.50 n

Covers the relation between engineer and contractor, specimens of forms of contracts and specifications, inspection of work, estimating materials and cost of structure, bidding on work, organization of contract work, essentials of contract law. Not so extensive as Johnson (in A. L. A. Catalog), but practical and up to date.
Engineering—Contracts and specifications
9-6036/2

Gillette, Halbert Powers. Handbook of cost data, for contractors and engineers. 2d ed. 1910. 1854p. M. C. Clark $5 n

Discusses cost-keeping, estimating, cost of earth and rock excavation, roads, pavements, walks, stone masonry, concrete construction, waterworks, sewers, erecting buildings, railroads and bridges, and railway and topographic surveying. Costs are taken from work actually carried out. Pittsburgh.

Engineering—Estimates and costs 10–12436/2

—— & Dana, R. T. Cost keeping and management engineering. 1909. 346p. illus. M. C. Clark $3.50 n

Valuable work for contractors and superintendents engaged in the management of engineering construction, discussing the problems of cost, systems of payment, office appliances and methods, etc.

Engineering—Management || Cost accounting 10–778/3

Merriman, Mansfield, ed. American civil engineers' pocket book. 1911. 1380p. illus. Wiley $5 n

Of composite authorship, the different sections being furnished by leading American authorities in their respective subjects. Fuller than Trautwine and in several features a distinct improvement over that standard work.

Civil engineering 11–1327/2

Williams, Archibald. How it is done; or, Victories of the engineer. 1908. 484p. illus. Nelson $1.25

Methods, processes and principles of large engineering achievements popularly but not superficially told. Includes many recent enterprises. Specially suitable for young people.

—— How it works. 1907. 461p. illus. Nelson $1.25

Concise, straightforward discussion of steam, electricity, light, heat, sound, hydraulics, optics, etc., and their applications to apparatus in common use. Within easy comprehension of older boys. Well illustrated.

Physics || Industrial arts || Machinery 7–29122/5

621 Mechanical engineering

Hawkins, Nehemiah. Hawkins' mechanical dictionary. 1909. 684p. Audel $3.50

Cyclopedia of technical words, terms and phrases belonging to mechanical engineering and the mechanic arts, defined in language that may be understood by the workingman. Includes biographical notes of men distinguished in the field of engineering and invention. Pratt.

Technical dictionaries || Industrial arts—Dictionaries, cyclopedias, etc. || Mechanical engineering—Dictionaries, cyclopedias, etc. 9–14524/4

Lucke, Charles Edward. Power (Columbia univ. lect.) 1911. 316p. illus. Columbia univ. $2 n

Semi-popular lectures delivered to students of mechanical engineering with the object of pointing out "the enormous effect that the substitution of mechanical power for hand and animal labor has had on the organization of society and the conditions of living."

Power || Machinery in industry 11–10340/3

621.1 Steam engineering

Benjamin, Charles Henry. The steam engine. 1909. 316p. illus. Technical press $3

States clearly elementary principles and discusses their application in design, and describes construction and operation of modern reciprocating engines. Accurate, well arranged and only moderately technical.

Steam engines 9–26813/2

Collins, Hubert Edwin. Steam turbines (Power handbks) 1909. 186p. illus. McGraw-Hill $1

Compact, well illustrated manual for the power-plant engineer, describing in detail three standard types and giving the proper method of testing turbines and of correcting faulty operation or adjustment. The best work for the designer, operator or manufacturer is Moyer's Steam turbine (Wiley, 1908, 370p., $4 n, 8–37678)

Crane, William Edward. American stationary engineering. 2d ed. 1910. 285p. illus. Henley $2

This and Swingle's Twentieth century handbook for steam engineers and electricians (Drake, 1910 ed., 1481p., $3 n, 10–11048) cover power-plant operation in a practical way.

Power plants, Steam || Steam engines 10–9411/3

Gebhardt, George Frederick. Steam power plant engineering. 3d ed. 1910. 902p. illus. Wiley $6 n

Reliable, concise and unusually complete treatise, including everything but the actual design of boilers and engines. Excellent lists of references.

Power plants, Steam. Analytic: Bibl. 10–22556/3

621.2 Hydraulic engines or motors

Van Nostrand $2 n

Practical, semi-technical treatment of the applications of water and wind power. Written primarily for the student, but of value to the professional engineer.
Water power || Windmills || Turbines

McGraw-Hill $6 n

Comprehensive and strictly technical work for the practising hydraulic engineer. Considers all the fundamental principles involved in successful water-power development in all its phases. Pratt.
A briefer and simpler but authoritative work is Turneaure and Black's Hydraulic engineering (Amer. school of corres., 1909, 322p., $1 n, 9–35099)
Hydraulic engineering 8–28609/2

621.3 Electric engineering

The four volumes (14C, 62B, 91B, 92) of the International Library of Technology cover this subject very fully.

Hobart, Henry Metcalf, ed. Dictionary of electrical engineering. 1910. 2v. illus.
Lippincott $10 n

Authoritative, comprehensive dictionary, treating important subjects in signed articles of considerable length and illustrating machines and tools and their parts in full-page halftones or clear diagrams. The best dictionary in its field.
Electric engineering—Dictionaries, cyclopedias, etc. 11–35885/2

Standard handbook for electrical engineers. 3d ed. 1910. 1497p. illus.
McGraw-Hill $4 n

Invaluable tool for the electrical engineer and the practical electrician, covering the whole field fully and concisely in 20 sections, each written by an expert.
Electric engineering 10–21774/2

621.31 Dynamos. Motors

Crocker, Francis Bacon. Dynamo-electric machinery. 1908. 235p. illus.
Amer. school of corres. $1.50 n

Elementary treatise on the theory, constructive details, calculation, characteristic curves, and design of dynamo-electric machinery, covering essential features.
Electric machinery || Dynamos 8–23578/3

Franklin, William Suddards, & Esty, William. Dynamos and motors. 1909. 489p. illus.
Macmillan $4 n

Students' text, restricted to dynamo-electric machinery and including both direct-current and alternating current machines. Requires a knowledge of college physics.
Dynamos || Electric motors 9–22591/3

Hobart, Henry Metcalf. Electric motors. 2d ed. 1910. 748p. illus. Macmillan $5.50 n

Treats of design and construction. Describes numerous modern types and discusses theoretical questions of interest to designers. Pittsburgh.
Electric motors A11–434/2

Meade, Norman Gardner. Electric motors. 1908. 159p. illus. McGraw-Hill $1 n

Describes the leading motors and appliances and gives suggestions for their installation, care and management. Designed for amateurs or shop men with little training. Many illustrations and diagrams.
Electric motors 8–26689/2

Shaad, George C. Power stations and power transmission. 1908. v. p. illus.
Amer. school of corres. $1 n

Pt 1, Power stations; pt 2, Power transmission. Elementary treatise, in the "Home study" series.
Power plants, Electric || Electric power transmission 7–37601/3

Swenson, Bernard Victor, & Frankenfield, Budd. Testing of electro-magnetic machinery and other apparatus. 1904-11. 2v. illus.
Macmillan, v. 1, $3 n; v. 2, $2.60 n

Intended as a laboratory manual and reference work for engineers. Tests selected are those bearing on the design, construction or operation of electric machinery. Pittsburgh.
Electric machinery 4–1636/2

621.33 Electric traction

Burch, Edward Parris. Electric traction for railway trains. 1911. 583p. illus.
McGraw-Hill $5 n

Detailed, comprehensive treatise, presenting advantages and possibilities of electrification. More valuable as a reference work for engineers than Sheldon's Electric traction (below) Pittsburgh.
Railroads—Electrification 11–25149/2

Lowe, Paul Emilius. Electric railway troubles and how to find them. 1909. 367p. illus. Drake $1.50

Guide to the proper inspection, testing and repair of motors, controllers, lightning arresters, substation apparatus, and the minor fittings of an electric car. Intended for mechanics; contains a large amount of practical information.

Electric railroads 9–22202/2

Sheldon, Samuel, & Hausmann, Erich. Electric traction and transmission engineering. 1911. 307p. illus. Van Nostrand $2.50 n

Practical presentation of the problems connected with the installation of a complete electric railway system. Though designed as a students' text, an excellent work for young engineers.

621.34 Power transmission

Koester, Frank. Hydroelectric developments and engineering. 1909. 475p. illus. Van Nostrand $5 n

Practical and theoretical treatise on the development, design, construction, equipment and operation of hydroelectric plants from their inception to the delivery of power to the substation and consumer. Describes several representative plants in the United States and Europe.

Hydroelectric plants 9–20943/2

Lyndon, Lamar. Development and electrical distribution of water power. 1908. 317p. illus. Wiley $3 n

Development, equipment and descriptions of hydroelectric generating and transmission plants. Brief treatment of practical engineering features. Does not take up the theory of hydraulics or electricity.

Hydroelectric plants 8–11462/2

621.35 Accumulators

Lyndon, Lamar. Storage battery engineering. 3d ed. 1911. 601p. illus. McGraw-Hill $4 n

Treats of the design, installation and maintenance of accumulator equipments. Theory is largely omitted and mathematics reduced to a minimum. Pittsburgh.

Storage batteries 11–492/2

621.36 Electric furnace

Borchers, Wilhelm. Electric furnaces; tr. by H. G. Solomon. 1908. 224p. Longmans $2.50 n

Concise review of commercial designs of resistance and arc furnaces, sketches of the author's experimental furnaces and discussion of details of construction.

Electric furnaces GS9–32/2

621.4 Air and gas engines and other motors

Hiscox, Gardner Dexter. Gas, gasoline and oil-engines, including producer-gas plants. 20th ed. 1911. 476p. illus. Henley $2.50

Non-mathematical descriptions of most American types. This edition contains new matter on marine engines and motors, and new illustrations. Very popular with operators. The two volumes in the International Library of Technology (93-94) are among the best on practical operation.

Gas and oil engines || Gas producers 11–6458/3

Levin, Arvid Michael. The modern gas-engine and the gas-producer. 1909. 485p. illus. Wiley $4 n

Excellent work for the designer, giving little attention to operation. Lays emphasis on stationary engines for general power purposes. Chapter on gas-producers.

Gas and oil engines. Analytic: Gas producers 10–1135/3

Poole, Cecil Percy. The gas engine. 2d ed. 1910. 97p. illus. McGraw-Hill $1 n

Presents the important features of gas-engine construction and operation with as little mathematics as possible. Jones' Gas engine (Wiley, 1909, 447p., $4, 9–4148) is preferable for the student, being more complete.

Gas and oil engines A12–523/2

Suplee, Henry Harrison. The gas turbine. 1910. 262p. illus. Lippincott $3 n

Useful compilation from many scattered sources of theoretical and practical data showing progress in the design and construction of gas turbines.

Gas turbines 10–4070/2

Wimperis, Harry Egerton. The internal combustion engine. 1909. 326p. illus. Van Nostrand $3 n

An effort toward a more complete theory of the gas engine. For the advanced engineering student rather than the engineman. Pratt.

The most important work, but quite technical, is Güldner's Design and construction of internal-combustion engines (Van Nostrand, 1910, 672p., $10 n, 10–1656), the first American edition, with additions on American engines by H. Diederichs.

Gas and oil engines 9–17426/2

621.5 Air-compressors. Refrigeration

Dickerman, Charles, & Boyer, F. H. Refrigeration. 1909. 109p. illus. Amer. school of corres. $1 n

Brief statement of the principles of refrigeration, followed by a detailed description of the ammonia compression system, with numerous diagrams. Less extensive than Ewing's Mechanical production of cold (Putnam, 1908, 204p., $3.25 n, 9–7594) which deals largely with applications, giving little attention to principles.

Refrigeration and refrigerating machinery 9–2273/2

621.6 Blowing and pumping engines

Greene, Arthur Maurice. Pumping machinery. 1911. 703p. illus. Wiley $4 n

Full, technical work, based on lectures to mechanical engineering students. Outlines the development of pumping machinery and describes a number of common forms of pumps and designs. Collins' Pumps (McGraw-Hill, 1908, 99p., $1, 8–34265) is an untechnical work devoted to running of pumps.
Pumps 11–14426/2

621.7 Mills. Factories. Engineering works

Barrows, Frank Wilson. Practical pattern making. 1906. 326p. illus. Henley $2

Discusses and illustrates the leading operations and describes in detail methods for making a number of representative patterns. Pittsburgh.
Pattern making 6–2079/2

Day, Charles. Industrial plants (Works management lib.) 1911. 294p. illus. Engin. m. $3 n

Discusses principles of arrangement and operation of industrial plants, problems that enter into the metal-working trades and machine-shop practice and the relationship of client and engineer. Argues greater efficiency through improved buildings and methods.
Factory management || Efficiency, Industrial 11–1639/3

Smith, Robert Henry. Text-book of the principles of machine work. 1910. 388p. illus. Industrial educ. bk co. $3 n

Clear, practical guide to general machine-shop work. This and his Textbook of the elements of machine work (Industrial educ. bk co. 1910, 192p., $2 n, 10–18897) are the first two volumes of three in a course for industrial schools.
Machine shop practice 10–18898/2

Tate, James Murray, & Stone, M. O. Foundry practice; a treatise on molding and casting in their various details. 3d ed. 1909. 234p. illus. Wiley $2

Elementary handbook of principles, intended for beginners and engineering students rather than practical foundrymen. An exhaustive work for the latter is McWilliam and Longmuir's General foundry practice (Lippincott, 1907, 383p., $4.50 n, 8–16906)
Foundry work 9–1599/2

621.8 Millwork. Mechanism of transmission

Alford, Leon Pratt. Bearings and their lubrication. 1911. 235p. illus. McGraw-Hill $2.50 n

Clear, detailed treatise on machinery bearings both with sliding contact and rolling contact. Discusses materials, design and maintenance. Pittsburgh.
Bearings (machinery). Analytic: Lubrication and lubricants 11–29775/3

621.9 Machine tools. Shop practice

The four volumes in the International Library of Technology (1B, 2B, 3B, 4C) cover this subject and pattern-making very completely.

Colvin, Fred Herbert, & Stanley, F. A. Machine shop primer. 1910. 148p. illus. McGraw-Hill $1 n

Elementary reference book, in which the underlying principles of things seen daily in shop work are explained in simple language and fully illustrated.
Machine tools || Machine shop practice 10–30539/3

Leonard, William Samuel. Machine-shop tools and methods. 6th ed. 1911. 573p. illus. Wiley $4

Describes clearly hand and machine-made tools and methods of using them. For the practical machinist the three works by Woodworth are very useful: American tool-making, Drop forging and Punches, dies and tools (Henley, $4 ea)
Machine tools || Machine shop practice 11–2503/3

622 Mining engineering

Boulton, W. S., ed. Practical coal mining. 1907–8. 6v. illus. map. 25½cm Lond. Gresham 6/ n ea

Detailed treatise on English practice, including a chapter on coke-making.
Coal mines and mining GS10–529/2

Crane, Walter Richard. Ore mining methods. 1910. 219p. illus. Wiley $3 n

Descriptions of methods of ore mining employed in the United States. Though necessarily brief, the application of each method with its advantages and disadvantages is given and well illustrated.
Mining engineering 10–14565/2

Hoover, Herbert Clark. Principles of mining. 1909. 199p. illus. McGraw-Hill $2.50 n

Admirable discussion of the broader phases of the subject from the advanced standpoint of the examining or managing engineer. Engin. news.

The best discussion of the economics of mining is given in Finlay's Cost of mining (McGraw-Hill, 1909, 415p., $5 n, 9–30270)

Mines and mineral resources || Mining engineering || Mining industry and finance 9–13936/4

Husband, Joseph. A year in a coal-mine. 1911. 171p. Houghton $1.10 n

Experiences of a Harvard graduate while learning by actual work the "operating end" of coal-mining in an Illinois mine.

Coal mines and mining 11–9915/3

Richards, Robert Hallowell. Textbook of ore dressing. 1909. 702p. illus. McGraw-Hill $5 n

Condensation for students' use of the author's Ore dressing (McGraw-Hill, 1903, 4v., $20, 3–28271), the most authoritative and complete treatise on the theory and practice of ore dressing. Preferable to the larger work for the average library.

Ore treatment 9–28713 2

623 Military and naval engineering

Field, Cyril. Story of the submarine from the earliest ages to the present day. 1909. 304p. illus. Lippincott $2 n

Popular outline history of submarine navigation, with an account of the divers and diving apparatus of the Middle Ages. Illustrations interesting and informing.

Submarine boats W9–102/3

624 Bridges and roofs

Dufour, Frank O. Bridge engineering; roof trusses. 1908. 357p. illus. Amer. school of corres. $3 n

Brief, popular and elementary treatment, having many diagrams and full-page illustrations. For the amateur bridge designer or civil engineering student. What promises to be a very complete and excellent work for the engineer is Marburg's Framed structures and girders (McGraw-Hill, 3v.) of which only the part on stresses (1911, $4, 11–26815) is now in print.

Bridges || Trusses. Analytic: Roofs 8–30724/4

Ketchum, Milo Smith. Design of highway bridges and the calculation of stresses in bridge trusses. 1908. 544p. illus. McGraw-Hill $4 n

Covers the essential part of a first course in bridge design. Based on current practice of reliable bridge companies. Pittsburgh.

Bridges 8–32509/2

625 Railroad and road engineering

Raymond, William Galt. Elements of railroad engineering (Railroad engineering) 1908. 405p. illus. maps. Wiley $3.50

College text, mainly on railway economics, describing the fixed portion of a railroad plant and presenting the underlying principles governing the design of its layout.

Railroad engineering 8–7887/2

Webb, Walter Loring. Railroad engineering. 1909. 168p. illus. Amer. school of corres. $3 n

General survey adapted to beginners. Covers the subjects of surveying, construction, operation, maintenance and economics in a practical way.

Wilson, Winter Lincoln. Elements of railroad track and construction. 1908. 320p. illus. Wiley $2

Designed for the inexperienced student, and written as simply and with as few formulas as possible.

Railroads—Construction || Railroads—Track 8–27791/3

625.7 Roads. Highways

Frost, Harwood. The art of roadmaking. 1910. 554p. illus. McGraw-Hill $3 n

Compilation from authoritative sources, treating the problems of roadmaking and road maintenance in language as untechnical as the nature of the subject permits.

Roads || Pavements. Analytic: Bibl. 10–21618/4

Hubbard, Prévost. Dust preventives and road binders. 1910. 416p. illus. Wiley $3 n

Most comprehensive treatise on a subject still in the experimental stage. Discusses very fully methods of prevention, specially the various chemical treatments of the road surface.

Roads || Dust || Pavements 10–10529/4

Richardson, Clifford. The modern asphalt pavement. 2d ed. 1908. 629p. illus. Wiley $3

Complete revision of a valuable work (1905) discussing physical and chemical properties of asphalt, methods of laying pavements, testing and analysis, etc.

Asphalt || Pavements 8–32510/3

626 Canal engineering

Forbes-Lindsay, Charles Harcourt Ainslie. Panama and the canal today. Rev. ed. 1912. 474p. illus. maps. Page $3

Presents conditions in the canal zone, resources of the country, and description of the canal as it will be ultimately constructed, prefaced by a history of the canal project from the earliest times.

Panama || Panama Canal 12–1768/3

Wilson, Herbert Michael. Irrigation engineering. 6th ed. 1909. 625p. illus. Wiley $4

Reliable summary of prevailing practice in irrigation engineering in the United States, based on wide experience in government work. Pittsburgh.
Irrigation 9–22934/2

628 Sanitary engineering

Bashore, Harvey Brown. Outlines of practical sanitation for students, physicians and sanitarians. 1906. 208p. illus. map.
Wiley $1.25 n

Within the limits indicated by the subtitle, this is one of the best and most practical books on sanitation that has ever come to our attention. Engin. news.
Sanitation 6–33610/2

Gerhard, William Paul. The water supply, sewerage and plumbing of modern city buildings. 1909. 493p. illus. Wiley $4 n

Practical treatise, the chapters correlated but each treating a complete subject. Includes sanitary fixtures and appliances, advanced and simplified plumbing methods, plumbing in its relation to preventable diseases, water supply for high buildings, etc.
Sanitary engineering || Plumbing 9–32640/3

McCullough, Ernest. Engineering work in towns and cities. 2d ed. 1908. 502p. illus.
M. C. Clark $3 n

Practical advice on pavements, drainage, water supply, buildings, contracts, records, office systems, etc., for city officials without technical training and engineers inexperienced in municipal works. N.Y.
Municipal engineering 8–28611/2

Richards, Mrs Ellen Henrietta (Swallow) Sanitation in daily life. 1907. 82p.
Whitcomb 60c n

Aims to stimulate interest in sanitation and to impress the reader with its importance. Deals with sanitation of private houses, public buildings and towns, with precautions against contagion and suggestions for sanitary regulations.
Sanitation 7–37734/2

628.1 Water supply

Hazen, Allen. Clean water and how to get it. 1907. 178p. illus. Wiley $1.50

Deals with the means now used by American cities to secure clean water and with the application of these means to new problems. A general discussion of special value to city officials. Author has also written a good work on Filtration of public water supplies (Wiley, 3d ed. 1910, 321p., $3, May 1, 1900–78)
Water supply 7–30139/3

Turneaure, Frederick Eugene, & Russell, H. L. Public water-supplies. 2d ed. 1908. 808p. illus. Wiley $5

Best technical treatise for the civil or sanitary engineer, covering both construction and sanitation of water works. Contains a chapter on pumping machinery, by D. W. Mead.
Water supply || Water supply—Bibl. 8–25128/3

628.3 Disposal of sewage

Dunbar, William Phillips. Principles of sewage treatment; tr. by H. T. Calvert. 1908. 271p. illus. Lippincott $4.50 n

Best treatment of scientific principles on which sewage disposal depends. Reviews the development of the problem and gives historical data and facts of present-day efforts towards its solution in various countries. Of first value to the sanitary engineer.
Sewage Agr9–1512/2

Kinnicutt, Leonard Parker, & others. Sewage disposal. 1910. 435p. illus. Wiley $3 n

Most complete work in English, dealing chiefly with methods and works conducted on a large scale. Though special attention is given to American processes, considers valuable features of French and German practice.
Sewage. Analytic: Bibl. 10–22551/3

628.4 Municipal sanitation

Morse, William Francis. The collection and disposal of municipal waste. 1909. 500p. illus. Municipal jour. & engin. $5 n

Important work, including data gathered by the author during nearly 21 years of continuous work along these lines. Endeavors to describe all known methods, giving results obtained. Pittsburgh.
Refuse and refuse disposal 9–6510/2

Soper, George Albert. Modern methods of street cleaning. 1909. 201p. illus.
McGraw-Hill $3 n

Based on author's experience as a sanitary engineer and on studies made during an investigating tour (1907) of 20 European cities, the street-cleaning methods of seven of which and of New York City are described and pictured.
Street cleaning 9–21872/2

628.6 House drainage

Bashore, Harvey Brown. The sanitation of a country house. 1905. 103p. illus.
Wiley $1

Popular handbook applying elementary principles of sanitation to location, surroundings, water supply and waste disposal of country homes, with a chapter on the summer camp.
Sanitation, Household 5–23060/2

Gerhard, William Paul. The sanitation, water supply and sewage disposal of country houses. 1909. 328p. illus. map.
Van Nostrand $2 n

Authoritative work on domestic sanitation, aiming to establish leading principles rather than to give details of practice. Gives illustrated examples of water supply and sewage disposal installations under varying conditions.

Sanitation, Household. Analytics: Water supply || Sewage 9–11275/4

628.7 Rural water supply

Lynde, Carleton John. Home waterworks (Young farmer's pract. lib.) 1911. 270p. illus. Sturgis 75c

Clearly written, accurate and practical manual on obtaining running water and sanitary conveniences in country homes.

Water supply || Sanitation, Household || Pumps 11–6972/4

628.9 Lighting

Lectures on illuminating engineering delivered at the Johns Hopkins university, October and November, 1910. 2v. 1911.
Johns Hopkins $4 n

The most valuable work for the illuminating engineer, containing papers bearing on all practical phases of the subject by men who represent its greatest development and latest applications in this country.

Lighting 11–10341/2

629 Other branches of engineering

Aeronautics

Lilienthal, Otto. Birdflight as the basis of aviation; tr. by A. W. Isenthal. 1911. 142p. illus. Longmans $2.50

Systematic analysis of soaring flight based on observation and experiment extending over 25 years. A work of decided interest to students is the Langley Memoir on mechanical flight, edited by C. M. Manly (Smithsonian Institution, 1911, 2 pts, $2.50, 11–24711) which covers this pioneer's important work. The most exhaustive work, technical and authoritative, is Lanchester's Aerial flight (Van Nostrand, 1908, 2v., v. 1, Aerodynamics, 8–26416; v. 2, Aerodonetics, 2d ed. 10–14873, $6 n ea)

Macmillan $1.75 n

Describes author's experimental work with screws and supporting aeroplanes, including observations on machinery and principles and instructive chapters on air currents and the flight of birds and kites. Fully illustrated. N.Y.

Morgan, Alfred Powell. How to build a 20-foot bi-plane glider. 1909. 60p. illus.
Spon, paper 25c

Detailed and reliable treatment in popular language for amateurs. Gives directions for materials and construction, explains the principles involved and illustrates each stage by diagrams.

Aeroplanes 9–31008/3

Rotch, Abbott Lawrence. Conquest of the air; or, The advent of aerial navigation (Present day primers) 1909. 192p. illus.
Moffat $1 n

Popular but scientifically exact account of aerial navigation, its history, present conditions and outlook. Instructive prefatory chapter on atmospheric conditions as affecting aeronautics.

Aeronautics 9–25965/3

Zahm, Albert Francis. Aerial navigation. 1911. 496p. illus. Appleton $3 n

Brief but comprehensive history of aeronautics. Pt 3, "Aeronautic meteorology," contains information on general distribution of heat and pressure, permanent and periodic winds, and plates illustrating wind variations.

Aeronautics. Analytic: Meteorology 11–24585/3

629.1 Automobiles

Abbott, Twyman Osmand. Road rights of motorists. 1910. 457p. Outing $1.50 n

Manual designed for the motorist. Gives the general principles of automobile law, and complete citations from the statute laws of all the states having laws affecting the motorist.

Gunn, James. The practical design of motor cars. 1910. 256p. illus. Longmans $3 n

Satisfactory work for the student and manufacturer, dealing with the fundamental principles on which good design is based and describing and illustrating in detail the different parts of a car. Two volumes in the International Library of Technology (110–111) cover the ground more fully.

Automobiles A10–2414/2

Root, Charles P. Automobile troubles and how to remedy them. 1909. 225p. illus.
C. C. Thompson $1

Tells the owner, driver or machinist how to locate troubles and gives explicit and easily understood directions for remedying them. Another useful work, consisting of classified illustrations and indexed questions and answers, is Booth's Audels answers on automobiles, for owners, operators and repairmen (Audel, 1912, 426p., $1.50, 11–22345)

Automobiles 9–27590/2

Sloss, Robert Thompson. The automobile. 1910. 194p. Outing $1.25 n

Up-to-date, practical and very definite advice to the beginner on buying, selection of equipment, and care of an automobile, driving, finding troubles, care of tires, housing, and touring.

Automobiles 10–24464/2

629.2 Motor cycles

Jackman, W. J. A B C of the motor cycle (Thompson ser. of home study bks) 1910. 222p. illus. C. C. Thompson $1

Manual for the amateur, giving history, location of parts, motive power, description and care of mechanism, repairs, and good advice to the buyer. Very untechnical and helpfully illustrated.

Motor cycles 10–11400/3

630 Agriculture

Bailey, Liberty Hyde. The country-life movement in the United States. 1911. 220p. Macmillan $1.25 n

Stimulating study of the rural problem, by a foremost advocate of country life and worker for its development.

Country life || Agriculture || Natural resources. Analytics: Agriculture—Study and teaching || Farm labor || Fairs || Home economics 11–7239/8

—— Farm and garden rule-book. 1911. 587p. illus. Macmillan $2 n

Handy reference manual in which facts of value to farmers, stockmen, dairymen, fruit-growers, truck-gardeners, florists and others have been gathered from many different sources and arranged in the form of rules, tables, formulas, recipes, etc. New edition of the Horticulturist's rule-book (1899) and specially good in its treatment of horticultural topics.

Agriculture || Gardening 11–29062/4

—— The state and the farmer. 1908. 177p. Macmillan $1.25 n

Treats of rural conditions, specially the abandoned farm problem, and of amelioration of conditions through accurate surveys of rural life, the redirection of rural institutions and other means chiefly governmental. Exceptionally judicious, yet sympathetic. Harvard guide.

Agriculture || Farmers 8–22260/4

—— ed. Cyclopedia of American agriculture. 1907–9. 4v. illus. Macmillan $5 n ea

v. 1, Farms; v. 2, Crops; v. 3, Animals; v. 4, Farm and community. Valuable and comprehensive treatise, the work of several hundred specialists, collecting a large mass of material bearing on the history, economic and sociologic aspects of agriculture in this country. Considering its authority and wide range, it is an economical purchase for libraries not needing many of the smaller, separate treatises (which are better for circulation) and desiring a reference work of larger scope than Woll's Handbook for farmers and dairymen (in A. L. A. Catalog); there is no general treatise between these that is desirable.

Butterfield, Kenyon Leech. Chapters in rural progress. 1908. 251p. Univ. of Chic. $1 n

Discusses social rather than technical problems, reviewing existing agencies of progress and emphasizing the benefits of organization and cooperation.

Agriculture || Farm life 8–4449/4

Card, Fred Wallace. Farm management (Farm lib.) 1907. 270p. illus. Doubleday $2 n

Includes practical suggestions on business accounts, for watching markets, time to market various products, and adaptation to local conditions. Aims to awaken interest and suggest methods of studying these problems rather than to present solutions.

Farm management. Analytic: Marketing of farm produce 7–12691/3

Earle, Franklin Sumner. Southern agriculture. 1908. 297p. illus. Macmillan $1.25 n

Good discussion of southern conditions, problems and crops. The treatment of crop production is full and adequate, that of domestic animals deficient. The standard work for farmers and teachers.

Agriculture 8–12779/2

Greathouse, Charles Howard. Index to Farmers' bulletin nos. 1-250 (Agriculture dep't, Publications division, bulletin 8) 1907. 148p. Supt. of Docs. paper 10c

This index, shelved with the Farmers' bulletins, will greatly increase their usefulness. Six later indexes cover bulletins 251–400.

Agriculture—Bibl. Agr 7–2277/2

—— Index to the Yearbooks of the United States Department of agriculture, 1901–1905 (Agriculture dep't, Publications division, bulletin 9) 1908. 166p. Supt. of Docs. 20c

Useful reference tool, supplementing the index to the Year books 1894–1900, published in 1902.

Agriculture—Bibl. Agr9–346/2

Hall, Alfred Daniel. Feeding of crops and stock. 1911. 298p. illus. Dutton $1.50 n

Semi-popular introduction to the study of the production of crops and stock, by the leading English authority on soils and fertilizers. The larger part is given to a discussion of the composition of the field and garden crops.

Soils || Fertilizers and manures. Analytic: Feeding and feeding stuffs A11–1525/4

Hunt, Thomas Forsyth. How to choose a farm, with a discussion of American lands (Rural sci. ser.) 1906. 412p. illus. Macmillan $1.75 n

General tests for judging farms, with information about soils and farming conditions in the United States, her dependencies and South America. Compressed but readable style. N.Y.

Agriculture || Farms 6–26525/4

McLennan, John. Manual of practical farming. 1910. 298p. illus. Macmillan $1.50 n

Practical, untechnical treatise covering briefly the whole range of farming. More comprehensive than Goodrich's First book of farming (Doubleday, 1905, 259p., $1 n, 5–10171) which deals with fundamental principles and applies them in simple experiments.

Maynard, Samuel Taylor. The small country place. 1908. 317p. illus. Lippincott $1.50 n

Practical information on building the house, decorating the grounds, fruit growing, market gardening, poultry keeping, and dairying. Calendar outlines each month's work. Applies specially to eastern conditions, but many of the suggestions are of value anywhere. Well illustrated.

Country houses. Analytics: Fruit culture || Market gardening || Poultry 8–17270/5

Plunkett, Sir Horace Curzon. The rural life problem of the United States. 1910. 174p. Macmillan $1.25 n

Sensible and suggestive consideration of ill effects of present tendency to develop cities at the expense of the country. The author thinks the remedy lies in closer cooperation among farmers. Considerable emphasis on the conservation question. N.Y.

Country life || Agriculture || Natural resources 10–14393/4

U. S. Country life commission. Report (U. S. 60th Cong., 2d sess. Senate doc. 705) 1909. 65p. Supt. of Docs. paper 10c

Result of an inquiry into the means available for supplying the deficiencies existing in the country life of the United States, and into the best methods of organized permanent effort in investigation and actual work in bettering rural conditions. A better edition is the reprint published by Sturgis (1911, 150p., 75c n, A11–1676), to which has been added an introduction by Theodore Roosevelt.

Country life || Farmers || Natural resources. Analytics: Farm labor || Country schools 9–35278/6

630.7 Study and teaching of agriculture

Bailey, Liberty Hyde. The training of farmers. 1909. 263p. Century $1 n

Sound and stimulating essays, taking up some of the problems discussed in The state and the farmer (above) from a more distinctly educational point of view, and dwelling on the means now existing for training farmers to be efficient craftsmen and live citizens.

Farmers || Agriculture—Study and teaching E9–1594/4

Bricker, Garland Armor. The teaching of agriculture in the high school. 1911. 202p. illus. Macmillan $1 n

Advocates teaching of elemental rather than elementary agriculture in the secondary schools, and as a separate science. Outlines organization and arrangement of course, laboratory and field work, etc. Pittsburgh.

Agriculture—Study and teaching 11–1528/2

Warren, George Frederick. Elements of agriculture. 1909. 434p. illus. Macmillan $1.10 n

The purpose is to make the teaching of agriculture in high schools comparable in extent and thoroughness with the teaching of physics, mathematics, history and literature. Chemistry and botany should precede [the study] of agriculture as given in this book. L. H. Bailey.

Agriculture 9–21273/2

631 Soil. Fertilizers. Drainage

Bowie, Augustus Jesse, jr. Practical irrigation: its value and cost. 1908. 232p. illus. McGraw-Hill $3 n

Thoroughly practical work, of special value to the student or expert, but containing considerable material that the layman can understand.

Irrigation 8–19875/2

Elliott, Charles Gleason. Practical farm drainage. 2d ed. 1908. 188p. illus. Wiley $1.50

Revised edition of a standard work (1882), written by chief drainage engineer of the U. S. Department of agriculture.

Drainage 8–28298/2

Fletcher, Stevenson Whitcomb. Soils; how to handle and improve them (Farm lib.) 1907. 438p. illus. Doubleday $2 n

Popular exposition of important facts, clearly illustrated with photographic reproductions. The most comprehensive and scientific treatise is Hilgard's Soils (Macmillan, 1906, 593p., $4 n, 6–26528), which is too technical for the ordinary reader.

Soils 7–6647/2

Hall, Alfred Daniel. Fertilisers and manures. 1909. 384p. illus. Dutton $1.50 n

Thorough, scientific treatise, written by an authority, but not too technical for the general reader.

Fertilizers and manures Agr10–50/2

King, Franklin Hiram. The soil: its nature, relations and fundamental principles of management (Rural sci. ser.) 1907. 303p. illus. Macmillan $1.50 n

Brief, popular work, for the general reader.

Vivian, Alfred. First principles of soil fertility. 1908. 265p. illus. Judd $1 n

Excellent, untechnical work, which with King (above) is specially well adapted to needs of the farmer.

Soil fertility || Fertilizers and manures 8–2216/3

Widtsoe, John Andreas. Dry-farming (Rural sci. ser.) 1911. 445p. illus. maps. Macmillan $1.50 n

Accurate and very complete survey, considering climatic features, soils, crops, implements, irrigation, and the history and present status of dry-farming. The best work in print, excellently illustrated.

Dry farming 11–1531/2

632. Pests. Hindrances

Chittenden, Frank Hurlbut. Insects injurious to vegetables. 1907. 262p. illus. Judd $1.50

Comprehensive treatise discussing the various methods of preventing injuries and destroying insects, and general crop pests, and itemizing the enemies of specific vegetables. A fuller and more technical work is Sanderson's Insect pests of farm, garden and orchard (Wiley, 1912, 684p., $3, 12–2287)

Insects, Injurious and beneficial 7–33935/2

Ingersoll, Ernest. Animal competitors (Young farmer's pract. lib.) 1911. 319p. illus. Sturgis 75c n

Handbook of the mammals of American farm lands, giving farmers, fruit-growers and ranchmen information as to which animals are their enemies and which their friends. Several chapters are devoted to raising weasels, muskrats, mink, badgers, skunks and other fur-bearing animals for their pelts.

Agricultural pests || Mammals || Fur-bearing animals 11–14765/4

Weed, Clarence Moores. Farm friends and farm foes. 1910. 334p. illus. Heath 90c n

Textbook for the grammar grades treating of the microbes, fungi, weeds, insects, birds and mammals that help or hinder the raising of crops. Covers a wider field than any other book and is popular yet scientifically accurate.

Agricultural pests. Analytics: Weeds || Insects, Injurious and beneficial || Fungi || Birds, Useful and injurious || Mammals 10–27663/8

633 Grains. Grasses. Fibers

Bowman, Melville LeRoy, & Crossley, B. W. Corn: growing, judging, breeding, feeding, marketing. 1908. 497p. illus. map. Bowman & Crossley $2.50

A full and well illustrated work. Designed as a texobook but useful to the corn-grower.

Corn 9–10144/2

Burkett, Charles William. Farm crops. 1910. 272p. illus. Judd $1.50 n

General information concerning field crops, somewhat disconnected but based on authoritative sources and conveniently arranged for practical use.

Crops. Analytics recommended 10–23647/2

Davidson, Jay Brownlee, & Chase, L. W. Farm machinery and farm motors. 1908. 513p. illus. Judd $2 n

Treats of development, construction, adjustment and operation of implements, and machines used in growing and harvesting farm crops, and on use of steam, gas, oil and electrical power. Prepared as a textbook but useful in practical work. Fully illustrated. N.Y.

Farm implements and machinery || Farm motors 8–5844/3

Dondlinger, Peter Tracy. Book of wheat; an economic history and practical manual of the wheat industry. 1908. 369p. illus. Judd $2 n

Most complete and scientific work on the subject, covering every phase of the industry.

Wheat 8–23519/2

Duggar, John Frederick. Southern field crops (exclusive of forage plants) (Rural textbk ser.) 1911. 579p. illus.
Macmillan $1.75 n

Clear, well arranged work for students and farmers, giving a full and practical treatment of the staple crops of the South, exclusive of forage plants, and a simple presentation of the scientific principles underlying agriculture.
Crops || Crops—Bibl. Analytics recommended for crops (14 cards) 11–7770/3

Hunt, Thomas Forsyth. Cereals in America. 1904. 421p. illus. Judd $1.75

Concise, but fairly comprehensive statement of experimental results and of practical farm methods. Gives botanical features briefly and cultural methods fully, and discusses diseases and insect enemies. Pittsburgh.
Grain 4–37016/2

—— Forage and fiber crops in America. 1907. 413p. illus. Judd $1.75

Only authoritative, comprehensive, well arranged work. Contains excellent lists for collateral reading.
Forage plants || Fibers. Analytic: Bibl. 7–24621/4

Voorhees, Edward Burnett. Forage crops for soiling, silage, hay and pasture (Rural sci. ser.) 1907. 384p. illus. Macmillan $1.50 n

Better adapted to farmer's use than Hunt (above), treating the subject from the cultivator's and feeder's viewpoint. Pays special attention to soiling crops and rotation.
Forage plants 7–31477/2

Wing, Joseph Elwyn. Alfalfa farming in America. 1909. 480p. illus.
Sanders pub. co. $2

Breezy, reliable account of the best cultural methods and of the feeding value of alfalfa.
Alfalfa 10–625/2

634 Fruits. Orchards. Vineyards

Libraries able to afford it should have Bailey's Cyclopedia of American horticulture (Macmillan, 4v., $20) which covers the whole subject in an authoritative and very useful manner.

Fletcher, Stevenson Whitcomb. How to make a fruit garden (Country life in Amer.) 1906. 283p. illus. 27cm Doubleday $2 n

Definite and practical information for amateurs, fruit growers and gardeners. Fully illustrated.
Fruit culture 6–26067/3

Green, Samuel Bowdlear. Popular fruit growing. 3d ed. 1910. 300p. illus. Webb $1

Standard work, better adapted to practical use than Fletcher or Powell.
Fruit culture 9–15049/2

Hume, Harold Hardrada. Citrus fruits and their culture. 3d ed. 1909. 587p. illus.
H. & W. B. Drew co. $2.50 n

Excellent treatment, the most complete on the subject. Good bibliography.
Citrus fruits Agr10–1085/2

Powell, Edward Payson. The orchard and fruit garden (Country home lib.) New ed. 1909. 322p. illus. Doubleday $1.10 n

Written for people escaping from city life to suburban homes. Gives specific cultural directions. Fine illustrations from photographs.
Fruit culture (1905 ed.) 5–10536/2

Waugh, Frank Albert. The American apple orchard. 1908. 215p. illus. Judd $1 n

Handbook of practical apple culture, giving advice on planting, cultivating, spraying, pruning, harvesting, marketing, etc. Includes catalogue briefly describing varieties. N.Y.
Apple 8–37196/2

634.9 Forestry

The circulars and bulletins of the U. S. Forest Service are of decided usefulness in communities where forestry or protection against forest fires are matters of special interest.

Fernow, Bernhard Eduard. A brief history of forestry in Europe, the United States and other countries. New ed. 1911. 506p.
Univ. of Toronto $2.50,

First published in 1907 as a textbook for forestry schools, to which the chapter on forestry in the United States (39p.) was added in 1909. Though "merely a compilation of facts gathered mostly from other compilations, official documents and journals," and lacking an index, its authority is unquestionable.
Forests and forestry Agr11–2251/2

—— Care of trees in lawn, street and park (Amer. nature ser.) 1910. 392p. illus.
Holt $2 n

Treatise for amateurs, telling "what every tree-owner should know of the care of trees"—their treatment in health and disease and best methods of growing and transplanting. Contains lists of trees and shrubs for various decorative uses. Helpfully illustrated.
Trees || Trees—Diseases and pests. Analytic: Landscape gardening 10–10537/4

Graves, Henry Solon. Principles of handling woodlands. 1911. 325p. illus. Wiley $1.50

Valuable book by chief forester of the U. S. Forest Service. Classifies and discusses the various methods of silviculture with special reference to present conditions in this country. Includes protection from fire and other injurious agencies. Pittsburgh.

636 Domestic animals

Harper, Merritt Wesley. Manual of farm animals. 1911. 545p. illus. Macmillan $2 n

Practical manual considering in detail the choosing, feeding, breeding and diseases of horses, cattle, sheep and swine. Numerous halftones illustrate various types. Very useful complement to Plumb's Types and breeds of farm animals (below)

Domestic animals. Analytics: Horse || Cattle || Sheep || Swine 11-23828/6

Plumb, Charles Sumner. Types and breeds of farm animals (Country life educ. ser.) 1906. 563p. illus. Ginn $2.40 n; School ed. $2

Discusses briefly the development of each breed, stating its distinguishing characteristics. Useful to agricultural students and practical stockmen. Pittsburgh.

Domestic animals || Breeding 7-1488/3

636.1 Horses

Johnstone, James Hope Stewart. The horse book. 1908. 299p. illus. Sanders pub. co. $2

Practical work on the breeding and managing of work horses, including saddle and pony breeds. Discusses and illustrates the leading types. Harper's Training and breaking of horses (Macmillan, 1912, 387p., $1.75 n, 12-6045) is also a very useful book.

Horse 7-40512/2

636.2 Cattle

Mumford, Herbert Windsor. Beef production. 1907. 209p. illus. Urbana, Ill., Author, $1.50

Clear, concise, reliable work, written by expert authority. Harper's Manual (above) will suffice for most libraries.

Cattle || Beef 7-19796/3

636.3 Sheep

Wing, Joseph Elwyn. Sheep farming in America. 3d ed. 1912. 368p. illus. Breeder's gazette $1

Good discussion of the breeds and their purposes and an excellent account of the selection and care of the flock and the prevention of diseases.

Sheep 12-2285/2

636.4 Swine

Coburn, Foster Dwight. Swine in America. 1909. 614p. illus. Judd $2.50 n

Most complete and satisfactory treatise, supplanting his Swine husbandry (in A. L. A. Catalog)

Swine 9-9236/2

636.5 Poultry

Sando, Roscoe Briant. American poultry culture. 1909. 265p. illus. McClurg $1.50 n

Practical, well illustrated handbook, designed specially for the beginner and small breeder and limited to facts gained from the personal experience of an expert. For breeders on a large scale Robinson's Principles and practice of poultry culture (Ginn, 1912, 611p., $2.50 n, 12–2284) and the American standard of perfection, issued by the American Poultry Association (last ed. 1910), are more valuable. The former is a complete, reliable, up-to-date presentation of the industry, the latter gives full descriptions of all recognized varieties of fowls.

Full directions for renovating and cleaning all kinds of household and wardrobe articles, in most cases giving several methods of treatment.

Cleaning || Dyes and dyeing 10–8068/3

667.6 Paints and pigments

Maire, Frederick. Modern pigments and their vehicles. 1907. 266p. Wiley $2

Brief, reliable book for beginning painters and dealers, more popular than Scott and Friend (below)

Scott, Winfield Germain. White paints and painting materials. 1910. 500p. illus. Mod. painter $3.50 n

Excellent, concise manual for painters. Chemical terms are clearly explained, and methods of testing paints, sources of raw material, processes of manufacture and formulas given. Friend's Introduction to the chemistry of paints (Longmans, 1910, 204p., $1.20 n, A10–2331) is intended for readers having no prior knowledge of chemistry and gives a working knowledge of the properties, reactions and general behavior of paint-vehicles and pigments.

669 Metallurgy and assaying

Desch, Cecil Henry. Metallography (Textbks of physical chem.) 1910. 429p. illus. Longmans $3 n

Clear but technical study of present (1910) knowledge concerning tool steels and general metallography. For advanced students and metallurgists.

Fulton, Charles Herman. Principles of metallurgy. 1910. 544p. illus. McGraw-Hill $5 n

Accurate, scientific chapters presenting the fundamental principles and theories of metallurgy and their application to its various branches. For the fairly advanced student. A good elementary presentation, fairly comprehensive and concise, is Wysor's Metallurgy (Chemical pub. co., 1908, 308p., $3, 8–25127)

Metallurgy 10–18896/2

Schnabel, Carl. Handbook of metallurgy; tr. by Henry Louis. 1905-7. 2v. Macmillan $6.50 n ea

Reliable treatise sufficiently comprehensive to give a thorough review of present metallurgical practices and the history of their development from early times. Collins' Metallurgy of lead (Lippincott, 1911, 558p., $6 n, GS11–153) covers an important branch of the subject fully and concisely. Another is represented in Peters' Principles of copper smelting (McGraw-Hill, 1907, 612p., $5, 7–12991) and his Practice of copper smelting (McGraw-Hill, 1911, 693p., $5 n, (11–9298) written to replace his earlier work (in A. L. A. Catalog)

Stoughton, Bradley. Metallurgy of iron and steel. 2d ed. 1911. 537p. illus. McGraw-Hill $3 n

Trustworthy survey of the progress and latest advances in the production and manipulation of iron and steel in the United States. Clear descriptions of apparatus, furnaces and appliances. Suited to needs of student and also of the iron and steel metallurgist not already an expert. Pratt.

Iron and steel processes are well presented in the following works: Becker's High-speed steel (McGraw-Hill, 1910, 360p., $4 n, 10–18398); Dichmann's Basic open-hearth steel process (Van Nostrand, 1911, 340p., $3.50 n, 11–35973); Forsythe's Blast furnace and the manufacture of pig iron (Williams, 1908, 368p., $3 n, 8–8484)

Metallurgy || Iron || Steel 12–718/4

670 Manufactures

Gibson, Charles R. Romance of modern manufacture (Romance ser.) 1910. 320p. illus. Lippincott $1.50 n

Describes in popular manner the evolution and modern methods of many important industries. Useful for material not to be found elsewhere.
Manufactures. Analytics recommended

Atkins, Evan Arthur. Practical sheet and plate metal work. 1908. 491p. illus. Macmillan $2 n

Covers a large variety of work, with tested patterns and exact directions for each. A good text for the artisan and student. Hasluck's Metal-working (McKay, 1907, 760p., $2.50, 8–3173) is a cyclopedic work containing accurate information on all known processes for working metal. Over 2000 illustrations and working drawings.
Sheet-metal work 9–11748/2

Hart, Richard N. Welding. 1910. 181p. illus. McGraw-Hill $2.50 n

A useful volume though largely a compilation of material from technical journals and books of metallurgy, arranged in convenient and readable order. Gives characteristics and treatment of each metal and describes the various processes of welding.
Welding 10–30421/2

Law, Edward F. Alloys and their industrial applications. 1909. 269p. illus. Lippincott $4 n

Summary of the principles of alloy mixing and their application to the industrial alloys. Clear, scientific and fairly untechnical, for the use of engineers, manufacturers, etc.
Alloys || Metallography 9–18940/3

675 Leather and articles made of leather

Bennett, Hugh Gardner. Manufacture of leather. 1909. 420p. illus. Van Nostrand $4.50 n

Deals with all processes thoroughly, describing modern English practice. Treats leather manufacture as a chemical industry and assumes that the reader has some acquaintance with chemistry. Pratt.
Modern American practice is well presented in Flemming's Practical tanning (Baird, 2d ed., 1910, 607p., $6 n, 10–8736)
Leather || Tanning 10–1480/3

676 Paper and articles made of paper

Sindall, R. W. Manufacture of paper (Westminster ser.) 1909. 285p. illus. Van Nostrand $2 n

Semi-technical work, outlining the history and processes of paper manufacture and indicating recent improvements. Usefully supplemented by Andes' Treatment of paper for special purposes (Van Nostrand, 1907, 239p., $2.50 n, 8–32512)
Paper. Analytics: Cellulose—Bibl. || Paper—Bibl. 9–14835/4

677 Textile fabrics

Dooley, William Henry. Textiles for commercial, industrial, evening and domestic arts schools. Rev. ed. 1912. 321p. illus. Heath $1.10 n

Practical, untechnical work, describing processes of manufacturing wool, silk, cotton and linen goods. Appendix contains practical directions for testing goods. More technical and comprehensive is Barker's Textiles (Van Nostrand, 1910, 375p., $2 n, A10–1429)
Textile industry and fabrics. Analytics recommended 12–6261/2

Matthews, Joseph Merritt. The textile fibres: their physical, microscopical and chemical properties. 2d ed. 1907. 480p. illus. Wiley $4

Summary intended for students and manufacturers. Contains a thorough discussion of methods for the chemical analysis of textile fibers.

678 Rubber and articles made of rubber

Schidrowitz, Philip. Rubber: its production and industrial use. 1911. 303p. illus. Van Nostrand $5 n

Technical work, dealing exhaustively and authoritatively with rubber, from the origin of its name and its sources of supply to crude rubber preparation, chemical analysis and latest industrial application.
Rubber 11–25399/2

680 Mechanic trades

682 Blacksmithing

Bacon, John Lord. Forging. 1909. 112p. illus. Amer. school of corres. $1 n

Elementary manual giving practical instruction in iron and steel forging; contains many diagrams. Pt 1, Materials and tools; pt 2, Typical forging operations; pt 3, Miscellaneous forging processes. A fuller work, but also elementary, is Moore's Handbook of practical smithing and forging (Spon, 1906, 251p., $2, 7–42490) Sallows' Blacksmith's guide (Technical press, 1907, 157p., $1.50, 7–33978) is a concise, well illustrated guide for the workman.

Forging 9–2270/2

683 Lock and gun making

Askins, Charles. The American shotgun. 1910. 321p. illus. Outing $2 n

A thorough consideration of modern shotguns, their working parts, improvements and variations, and also of their use. Contains admirable chapters on the psychology of shooting and on field etiquet.

Shotguns || Shooting 10–31156/3

684 Carriage and cabinet making

Crawshaw, Fred Duane. Problems in furniture making. 1906. 58p. illus. Manual arts press $1.20

Working drawings and text suitable for use in grammar and high schools. His Problems in wood turning (Manual arts press, 1909, 35p., 80c, 9–31244) is similar, containing 25 plates and a discussion of principles of design as applied to objects turned in wood.

Noyes, William. Handwork in wood. 1910. 231p. illus. Manual arts press $2

Differs from the typical manual in having a chapter each on logging and sawmill work. There are also chapters on seasoning and measuring, and finishing of wood. The usual subjects—tools, fastenings, shop equipment and care, etc.—are discussed in detail, and each has a selected list of references.

Woodwork || Carpentry. Analytics: Lumber and lumbering || Sawmills 10–22277/5

Selden, Frank Henry. Elementary cabinetwork for manual training classes. 1909. 278p. illus. Rand, McNally $1

Clearly written, fully illustrated, practical handbook for manual training schools or self-instruction. Pt 1 deals with general principles; pt 2, problems of actual construction; pt 3, special tools. N.Y.

Cabinet work 9–28711/2

Wells, Percy A., & Hooper, John. Modern cabinet work, furniture and fitments. 1910. 384p. illus. Lane $5 n

Gives an account of the theory and illustrates step by step the practice of the craft in all its applications to furniture and woodwork. Illustrations include over 1000 practical drawings and original designs.

Wheeler, Charles Gardner. A shorter course in woodworking. 1911. 286p. illus. Putnam $1.50 n

Clear description of tools and their uses, and operations of progressive difficulty in shaping, fitting and finishing wood. 765 helpful and well reproduced illustrations. More comprehensive than the author's Woodworking for beginners (in A. L. A. Catalog)

Woodwork 11–12716/2

689 Other trades

Eppendorff, Lina. Handwork construction. 1909. 125p. illus. Pratt Institute $1.58

Exercises in raffia, reed, bead and knot work, as used in the first year of the normal art and manual training course at Pratt Institute. The directions are clear and complete, the many illustrations helpful.

Turner, Luther Weston. The basket maker. 1909. 57p. illus. Atkinson, Mentzer 75c

Progressive class instruction in the principles and practice of weaving rattan from simple mats to fancy baskets of difficult shapes. Directions are clear and sufficiently detailed, and photographs and diagrams illustrate each step.

Basketwork 9–19435/2

690 Building

Richey, Harry Grant. The building foreman's pocket book and ready reference (Building mechanics ready ref. ser.) 1909. 1118p. illus. Wiley $5

Contains a selection from the material in the five volumes of The mechanics' ready reference, each of which is devoted to an individual trade, and other information of special value to the foreman.

Building 9–11746/2

691 Materials. Processes. Preservatives

691.3 Artificial stone. Concrete

Taylor, Frederick Winslow, & Thompson, S. E. Treatise on concrete, plain and reinforced. 2d ed. 1911. 807p. illus. Wiley $5

Concrete || Concrete, Reinforced. Analytic: Bibl 11–8441/4

691.7 Iron. Steel

Cushman, Allerton Seward, & Gardner, H. A. The corrosion and preservation of iron and steel. 1910. 373p. illus. McGraw-Hill $4 n

Review by two experts of the present knowledge of the subject, discussing the theories of corrosion and considering the various methods adopted for the prevention of rust.

Corrosion and anti-corrosives || Iron || Steel. Analytic: Bibl. 10–10447/5

Tucker, Edward A. Steel construction. 1908. 308p. illus. Amer. school of corres. $1.50

Steel construction 7–37590/2

692 Plans. Specifications, etc.

Plant, James C., & Zapf, A. E. Contracts and specifications. 1908. 112p. illus. Amer. school of corres. $1 n

Popular manual limited to specifications for building construction.

693 Masonry. Plastering. Fireproofing

Gillette, Halbert Powers, & Hill, C. S. Concrete construction: methods and cost. 1908. 700p. illus. M. C. Clark $5 n

Deals with subject from viewpoint of the builder of concrete structures, but is useful also to the designing engineer and architect.

Concrete construction 8–13350/2

Lewis, Myron Henry, & Chandler, A. H. Popular hand book for cement and concrete users. 1911. 430p. illus. Henley $2.50

Comprehensive work, considering design and discussing fully plain and reinforced concrete work and their application. Largely a compilation from technical trade journals and other sources.

Concrete construction || Concrete || Cement 11–1894/4

Turneaure, Frederick Eugene, & Maurer, E. R. Principles of reinforced concrete construction. 2d ed. 1909. 429p. illus. Wiley $3.50

Very successful treatment of the principles of mechanics underlying the design of reinforced concrete. Besides many changes conforming to the new knowledge since 1907, much recent experimental data has been added. Pratt.

Concrete, Reinforced || Concrete construction 9–17425/3

694 Carpentry. Joinery. Stairbuilding

Hodgson, Frederick Thomas, ed. Modern carpentry and joinery. 1906. v. 2, illus. Drake $2

The first volume is in the A. L. A. Catalog; this volume is called "Advanced series." Presents the quickest and most approved methods of construction arrived at as the result both of compilation and of the author's experience. Pittsburgh.

Carpentry 6–32419/2

Jacoby, Henry Sylvester. Structural details; or, Elements of design in heavy framing. 1909. 368p. illus. Wiley $2.25 n

Detailed discussion of timber framing, from simple fastenings to the heavier work. Modern practice is illustrated, designs are well chosen, and there are three selected bibliographies.

Building || Carpentry. Analytic: Bibl. 9–25207/4

Riley, J. W. Manual of carpentry and joinery. 1906. 500p. illus. Macmillan $2 n

Sets forth principles underlying various types of construction, with fully illustrated chapters on woods, tools and woodworking machinery. Uses English terms, sometimes unfamiliar, but easily understood. Of value to students and teachers of manual training and workingmen. N.Y.

Carpentry W7–42/2

696 Plumbing. Gas and steam fitting

Gerhard, William Paul. American practice of gas piping and gas lighting in buildings. 1908. 306p. McGraw-Hill $3 n

Practical treatise for the gas consumer and householder. The more technical portion, on gas installation, is followed by chapters of value to the layman, discussing prejudices and fallacies, gas-meters, interior illumination, relations with gas companies, etc.

Gas lighting || Gas fitting 8–17561/3

Richey, Harry Grant. Building mechanics' ready reference. Plumbers', steamfitters' and tinners' ed. 1908. 529p. illus. Wiley $1.50 n

A large amount of useful information, much of it in tabular form. Contains a valuable section on sheet-metal work.

Plumbing || Pipe fitting. Analytic: Sheet-metal work 8–23582/4

Starbuck, Robert Macy. Standard practical plumbing. 1910. 406p. illus. Henley $3

Practical, up-to-date text, whose accuracy, untechnical style and comprehensiveness make it the best general book on the subject. More than 300 illustrations. A more elementary outline, with simple illustrations, is Gray and Ball's Plumbing (Amer. school of corres., 1909, 228p., $1.50, 9–2271)

Plumbing 10–27346/2

697 Heating and ventilation

Hoffman, James David, & Raber, B. F. Handbook for heating and ventilating engineers. 1910. 321p. illus. James D. Hoffman $3.50

Useful manual covering briefly all branches, including electric heating. Pays considerable attention to principles.

King, Alfred Grant. Practical steam and hot water heating and ventilation. 1908. 402p. illus. Henley $3 n

Practical, up-to-date treatise for steam-fitters and apprentices, describing methods of estimating and installing the heating and ventilating systems now most largely in use. Numerous diagrams and tables. A more elementary manual is Hubbard's Heating and ventilation (Amer. school of corres., 1909, 221p., $1.50, 8–30358)

Steam heating || Hot water heating || Ventilation 8–7883/4

King, Franklin Hiram. Ventilation for dwellings, rural schools and stables. 1908. 128p. illus. Mrs F. H. King 75c

Aims to impress on parents, teachers of rural schools and farmers the necessity of good ventilation and suggests methods of installing simple systems in both old and new buildings. Illustrated with diagrams and views of buildings.

Ventilation 8–37680/2

698 Painting. Glazing. Paperhanging

Atkinson, Frank H. Sign painting up to now. 1909. 378p. illus. Drake $3

Practical manual based on 20 years' experience, the most comprehensive yet published. Contains nearly a hundred designs with accompanying notes and 75 alphabets varying widely in style.

Sign painting 9–30271/2

Painters magazine. 739 paint questions answered. 1904. 383p. Painters m. $3

This and its supplement are useful reference volumes: One thousand more paint questions answered (Painters m., 1908, 630p., $3, 9–8822)

Painting, Mechanical 4–13292/2

Sabin, Alvah Horton. House painting, glazing, paper hanging and white-washing. 1908. 121p. Wiley $1

Simple, practical book for the householder. Takes up materials, mixing and application of paints on exterior and interior, varnishing, colored finish without paint, floor-finishing, glazing, papering, white-washing, calcimining, cold-water paints. A useful compendium for reference use is Maire's Modern painter's cyclopedia (Drake, 1910, 440p., $1.60, 10–11049)

House painting. Analytics: Wall paper || Calcimining || Varnish and varnishing 8–21778/5

699 Car, ship and boat building

Beard, Daniel Carter. Boat-building and boating. 1911. 190p. illus. Scribner $1 n

Practical work, describing boatmaking from a primitive raft to a motor-boat, with directions for tying knots, making sails, etc. Excellent illustrations.

Boats and boating 11–26018/2

Durand, William Frederick. Motor boats. 1907. 209p. illus. Internat. marine engin. $1.50

Brief, practical and thoroughly scientific manual, including boats, propellers and engines. Two good elementary books for the amateur are Russell's Motor boats (C. C. Thompson, 1910, 288p., $1, 10–1472) and Slauson's Motor boat (Outing, 1911, 216p., 70c n, 11–30017)

Motor boats 7–3686/2

701 Philosophy. Esthetics

Babbitt, Irving. The new Laokoon. 1910. 258p. Houghton $1.25 n

Expounds the pseudo-classical and later romantic confusion in the arts, and traces these confusions into their general intellectual manifestations. Presupposes a wide knowledge of the history and expression of the arts.

832 German drama

Goethe, Johann Wolfgang von. Faust; freely adapted from Goethe's dramatic poem by Stephen Phillips and J. C. Carr. 1908. 208p. Macmillan $1.25 n

Successful adaptation in blank verse of the great poem, preserving the essentials of the original but condensing and omitting to bring it within the limitations of an acting drama.

Phillips, Stephen 8–24861/3

Hauptmann, Gerhart. Hannele, a dream poem; tr. by C. H. Meltzer. 1908. 103p. Doubleday $1 n

A little orphan reveals her mind and soul and the visions of the past and future in the delirium preceding her death. Hauptmann's most characteristic work. Modern drama.

8–9782/2

—— The sunken bell: a fairy play in five acts; tr. by C. H. Meltzer. 1900. 125p. illus. Doubleday $1 n

A perfect fairy drama. The same art that in Hannele blended the real with the ideal, the natural with the supernatural, the physical with the spiritual, is here even more highly idealized. Modern drama.

—— The weavers: a drama of the forties; tr. by Mary Harrison. 1911. 148p. Huebsch $1 n

One of Hauptmann's best known sociological dramas, presenting very realistically the sufferings of the oppressed weavers during the labor riots in Silesia about 1840.

Sudermann, Hermann. The joy of living: a play in five acts; tr. by Edith Wharton. 1902. 185p. Scribner $1.25 n

The well drawn characters typify the Berlinese aristocracy, who live in an environment wholly political. A play of fine workmanship and with large opportunity for artistic interpretation. Modern drama.

921 Individual biography

ALDRICH. Greenslet, Ferris. Life of Thomas Bailey Aldrich. 1908. 303p. illus. Houghton $3 n

A remarkable achievement in presenting a well rounded, vivid personality with a minimum of words and the studious reserve concerning intimate details which the poet would have demanded. Quotes largely from his letters. N.Y.

Aldrich, Thomas Bailey 8–27511/2

AUSTEN. Helm, William Henry. Jane Austen and her country house comedy. 1910. 259p. illus. Lane $3.50 n

Lively and sympathetic study of Miss Austen's character and art founded on perusal of her novels and letters and liberally strewn with apt quotations from them. N.Y.

Austen, Jane 10–35465/2

BACH. Parry, Sir Charles Hubert Hastings, *bart. Johann Sebastian Bach. 1909. 584p. illus. Putnam $3.50 n

Clear impression of the composer's personality as expressed in his works and a well proportioned account of his artistic development and his part in the evolution of modern music. Analysis of compositions will be specially useful to students.

Bach, Johann Sebastian 9–30624/2

BALDWIN, W. H., JR. Brooks, John Graham. An American citizen. 1910. 341p. illus. Houghton $1.50 n

Inspiring character study of a sincere, large-hearted railroad official who succeeded in business yet maintained his moral integrity and subordinated big private enterprises to active interest in the race problem and social reform. N.Y.

Baldwin, William Henry, jr. 10–15401/2

BANCROFT. Howe, Mark Anthony DeWolfe. Life and letters of George Bancroft. 1908. 2v. illus. Scribner $4 n

Recounts his experiences as student at Göttingen, 1818–20, as secretary of the navy, minister to England in 1846, and minister to Germany, 1867–74. Reminiscences and anecdotes of many notable persons, American and European.

Bancroft, George 8–12121/2

BEACONSFIELD. Monypenny, William Flavelle. Life of Benjamin Disraeli, earl of Beaconsfield. 1910. v. 1. illus. Macmillan $3 n

First volume of the authorized biography, covering period 1804–37, from Disraeli's birth to his election to Parliament. Brilliant, unbiased and extremely interesting. "Mr Monypenny has been given some new material, and some of it of priceless value." Sat. rev.

BEETHOVEN. Fischer, George Alexander. Beethoven: a character study; together with "Wagner's Indebtedness to Beethoven." 1905. 246p. illus. Dodd $1.40 n

Throws no new light on Beethoven's life and artistic nature, but is "perhaps the most rational, convincing, shrewd and sympathetic estimate yet made." Dial. Beethoven's letters, ed. by Dr A. C. Kalischer (Dutton, 1909, 2v., $7.50 n, 9–18573) contains all the letters in other editions and many never before printed.

Beethoven, Ludwig van. Analytic: Wagner, Richard 5–8664/3

Bernhardt, Sarah. Memories of my life. 1907. 456p. illus. Appleton $4 n

The personal, professional, and social recollections of a remarkable woman and great artist; versatile, egotistic, brilliant, audacious and always interesting.

Bernhardt, Sarah 7–34323/2

BLAINE. Stanwood, Edward. James Gillespie Blaine (Amer. statesmen) 1905. 377p. Houghton $1.25 n

Blaine, James Gillespie 5–33614/2

BLAKE. Gilchrist, Alexander. Life of William Blake; ed. with an introd. by W. G. Robertson. 1907. 533p. illus. Lane $3.50 n

The most extensive and important biography. De Selincourt's William Blake (Scribner, 1909, 298p., $2 n, W9–185) is a study of Blake's principles and practices, and contains an admirably sane analysis of his genius.

Blake, William W6–375/2

BLÜCHER. Henderson, Ernest Flagg. Blücher and the uprising of Prussia against Napoleon, 1806–1815 (Heroes of the nations) 1911. 347p. illus. maps. Putnam $1.50 n

One fourth of this simple and readable biography, the first in English, is devoted to Blücher's 71 years of farming, soldiering and gambling, and the rest to his military career, 1813–15.

Blücher, Gebhard Leberecht, fürst von Wahlstadt || Napoleon I, emperor of the French 11–28370/3

BONHEUR. Stanton, Theodore, ed. Reminiscences of Rosa Bonheur. 1910. 413p. illus. Appleton $3 n

Reminiscences and letters collected from the artist's friends, members of her family and other sources, form an admirable biography and portray a many-sided character.

Bonheur, Rosa 10–22736/2

BOTTICELLI. Ady, Mrs Julia (Cartwright) Life and art of Sandro Botticelli. 1904. 205p. illus. Dutton $4 n

Clear narrative, restating the results of modern research and giving a trustworthy account of Botticelli's career. What he owed to Savonarola and Dante is set forth in straightforward fashion, and his works are surveyed in chronologic order, one by one. Royal Cortissoz.

Botticelli, Alessandro Filipepi 4–1718/2

BRAHMS. Fuller-Maitland, John Alexander. Brahms (New lib. of music) 1911. 263p. illus. Lane $2.50 n

Perhaps the most useful English biography for the student, since it analyzes a large number of Brahm's compositions. Erb's Brahms is fuller in biographical detail but is too brief to be satisfactory; May's life is "the most complete accessible depository of Brahms lore" (Nation) but contains much that is of comparatively little interest.

Brahms, Johannes 11–4454/2

Brandes, Georg Morris Cohen. Reminiscences of my childhood. 1906. 397p. Duffield $2.50 n

Early experiences, intellectual, emotional and spiritual, of the great Danish critic. He is frankly interested in himself and writes with charming naïveté. N.Y.

Brandes, Georg Morris Cohen 6–34030/2

BRIGHT. O'Brien, Richard Barry. John Bright. 1911. 270p. illus. Houghton $3 n

Sketches of Bright's personality and his attitude toward the political issues of his day, as shown by his letters and speeches. An appreciation by Augustine Birrell serves as a preface.

Bright, John 11–27141/2

BRONTË. Shorter, Clement King. Charlotte Brontë and her sisters (Lit. lives) 1905. 240p. illus. Scribner $1 n

Brief, enthusiastic biography, supplementing Mrs Gaskell's Life by including later material. His larger work, The Brontës (Scribner, 1908, 2v., $6 n, 9–557) incorporates the material in this volume and adds over 700 letters, making it the most complete biography in print.

Brontë, Charlotte || Brontë, Emily || Brontë, Anne 5–32885/4

BROWN. Villard, Oswald Garrison. John Brown, 1800–1859. 1910. 738p. illus. map. Houghton $5 n

An exhaustive, unbiased biography, likely to remain the most complete and satisfactory study of this remarkable personality. Essentially a biography for the student; for popular use Du Bois' John Brown (Jacobs, 1909, 406p., $1.25 n, 9–24274) is the best brief volume.

Brown, John 10–22262/2

BROWNING. Dowden, Edward. Robert Browning (Temple biog.) 1904. 404p. illus. Dutton $1.50 n

Specially interesting as a study of his poems, narrating events of life as related to and interpreting them. N.Y.

Browning, Robert 4–19421/2

—— Griffin, William Hall. Life of Robert Browning; completed and ed. by H. C. Minchin. 1910. 342p. illus. Macmillan $3.50 n

Complete and admirable biography, benefitting by much new material gathered since Mrs Orr's work (in A. L. A. Catalog) Criticism is not attempted, but the origin, growth and reception of the poems are discussed.

Browning, Robert 11–8940/2

BRYANT. Bradley, William Aspenwall. William Cullen Bryant (Eng. men of let.) 1905. 229p. Macmillan 75c n

Deals with Bryant as poet, man of letters, man of affairs and well bred citizen. Based largely on the biography by John Bigelow (in A. L. A. Catalog)

Bryant, William Cullen 5–10186/2

BURNE-JONES. Burne-Jones, Georgiana (Macdonald), lady. Memorials of Edward Burne-Jones, 1833–1898. 1904. 2v. illus. Macmillan $6 n

As a record of his career, and particularly of his social life, the book is complete. Of criticism there is little or none. The writer, the talker, the letter-writer—brilliant all three—lives in these pages. Acad.

Burne-Jones, Sir Edward Coley, bart. 4–37057/2

CALHOUN. Hunt, Gaillard. John C. Calhoun (Amer. cris. biog.) 1908. 335p. Jacobs $1.25 n

The best biography for the public library, scholarly yet popular. Unlike Holst's biography (in A. L. A. Catalog) it gives personal history as well as a full survey of his political career.

Calhoun, John Caldwell 8–23726/2

CALVIN. Walker, Williston. John Calvin (Heroes of the reform.) 1906. 456p. illus. Putnam $1.50 n

Critical as well as sympathetic, carefully citing authorities, and candidly exhibiting both the lights and the shadows of a masterful character and career. Outlook.

Calvin, John 6–34268/2

CATHERINE DE MEDICI. Sichel, Edith Helen. Catherine de Medici and the French reformation. 1905. 328p. illus. Dutton $3 n

Not so much a biography as a series of studies of Catherine's character and influence, representing her as an unromantic but interesting and most human woman. Pittsburgh.

Catherine of Siena, Saint. Saint Catherine of Siena as seen in her letters; tr. by V. D. Scudder. 1905. 352p. Dutton $2.50

Selections from the letters of Catherine, excellently edited and with interesting forewords giving glimpses of the young saint's various correspondents. Gardner's Saint Catherine of Siena (Dutton, 1907, 439p., $4 n, 8–14840) is a sympathetic, reverent and very complete story of her life and work.

Catherine of Siena, Saint 5–36112/2

CAVOUR. Thayer, William Roscoe. The life and times of Cavour. 1911. 2v. illus. maps. Houghton $7.50 n

The most important work upon the making of modern Italy which has been published in English, and the most complete critical study of Cavour which has appeared in any language. Nation.

Cavour, Camillo Benso, comte di 11–26653/2

Chesnut, Mrs Mary Boykin (Miller) A diary from Dixie; ed. by I. D. Martin and M. L. Avary. 1905. 424p. illus. Appleton $2.50 n

Record of social life in Charleston, Montgomery and Richmond, 1860–65, by the gay, pleasure-loving wife of a Confederate brigadier-general. Extremely frank opinions of social and military leaders.

Chesnut, Mrs Mary Boykin (Miller) || South—Social life and customs || Confederate states of America 5–9036/5

Cipriani, Lisi Cecilia. A Tuscan childhood. 1907. 269p. Century $1.25 n

Reminiscences of child life in a patrician Italian family, in which seven lively and original children were disciplined and educated by English nursery governesses and German tutors. N.Y.

Cipriani, Lisi Cecilia || Italy—Social life and customs 7–31991/4

CLEMENS. Howells, William Dean. My Mark Twain. 1910. 186p. illus. Harper $1.40 n

Delightful record of a friendship which extended over 45 years, with a kindly and just appreciation of Clemens' personality and work. Part 2 contains Howells' reviews of his books 1869–1905, reprinted from magazines.

Clemens, Samuel Langhorne 10–19928/3

CLEVELAND. Gilder, Richard Watson. Grover Cleveland: a record of friendship. 1910. 270p. illus. Century $1.80 n

Reminiscences of an intimate friendship extending over 20 years. The quotations from conversations and letters reveal a man of simple, honest and forceful personality.

Cleveland, Grover 10–24280/2

—— Parker, George Frederick. Recollections of Grover Cleveland. 1909. 427p. illus. Century $3 n

Not a complete biography, but sympathetic, even reverent, studies of personality, character and political career, setting forth attitudes toward public questions and estimates of contemporaries.

COLERIDGE. Garnett, Richard. Coleridge (Bell's miniat. ser. of great writ.) 1904. 111p. Macmillan 50c

Excellent for compactness of data, literary quality and critical analysis.

Coleridge, Samuel Taylor 9–22847/2

Collyer, Robert. Some memories. 1908. 248p. Amer. unit. ass'n $1.25 n

Reminiscences covering the 50 years of Dr Collyer's ministry. His early life in England and experiences during the Civil War and the Chicago fire give special interest to a simple, well told narrative.

Collyer, Robert 9–2248/2

CONSTANTINE I, emperor of Rome. Firth, John Benjamin. Constantine the Great: the reorganization of the empire and the triumph of the church (Heroes of the nations) 1905. 368p. illus. Putnam $1.50 n

Constantine I, emperor of Rome || Rome—History—Empire 5–4773/3

Cornwallis-West, Mrs Jennie (Jerome) Reminiscences of Lady Randolph Churchill. 1908. 470p. illus. Century $3.50 n

Reminiscences covering the period 1869–1900, and including Lady Randolph's girlhood in Paris and her later experiences in the social, diplomatic and political life of England and the Continent.

Cornwallis-West, Mrs Jennie (Jerome) 8–30607/2

DANA. Wilson, James Harrison. Life of Charles A. Dana. 1907. 544p. Harper $3 n

Enthusiastic biography written by an intimate friend and ardent admirer. The chapters on Dana's early life, his connection with Greely, his part in the Brook Farm experiment and his work in the Civil War are valuable.

DAVIS. Dodd, William Edward. Jefferson Davis (Amer. cris. biog.) 1907. 396p. Jacobs $1.25 n

Sympathetic yet judicial, portraying the Confederate president as a man of high character and great ability who used his resources to the best advantage but whose cause was defeated by its inherent weakness. N.Y.

Davis, Jefferson 8–820/2

DEBUSSY. Liebich, Mrs Louise. Claude-Achille Debussy (Liv. masters of music) 1908. 92p. illus. Lane $1 n

Enthusiastic biographical sketch giving a description of Debussy's personality, an account of his compositions, and his work as writer and critic.

Debussy, Claude 8–8847/2

DIAZ. Creelman, James. Diaz, master of Mexico. 1911. 441p. illus. Appleton $2 n

Clear narrative of the great statesman's life and a valuable history of Mexico for the past 60 years. Too partisan to be wholly reliable.

Diaz, Porfirio 11–2066/2

DICKENS. Chesterton, Gilbert Keith. Charles Dickens: a critical study. 1906. 300p. Dodd $1.50 n

Suggestive, appreciative and at times brilliant essay, full of paradox and exaggeration, but illuminating and always entertaining. Concludes with a general estimate of influence and creative genius.

Dickens, Charles 6–34069/2

DONATELLO. Cruttwell, Maud. Donatello (Classics of art ser.) 1911. 162p. illus. Scribner $4 n

Workmanlike study of Donatello as the first realistic portraitist in Italian art. The biographical sketch is accurate and the interpretation of Donatello's work in accord with the best modern criticism.

DOUGLAS. Johnson, Allen. Stephen A. Douglas: a study in American politics. 1908. 503p. Macmillan $2.50 n

Distinctly drawn picture of political career, doing justice to Douglas' better qualities as well as recognizing limitations. Based on private letters, public documents and Douglas' autobiography. N.Y.

Douglas, Stephen Arnold 8–11832/2

DOUGLASS. Washington, Booker Taliaferro. Frederick Douglass (Amer. cris. biog.) 1907. 365p. illus. Jacobs $1.25 n

Gladden, Washington 9–28138/2

Gosse, Edmund William. Father and son; biographical recollections. 1907. 355p. Scribner $1.50 n

Autobiographic recollections giving an amazingly delicate and temperate record of a father's mistaken attempt to force rigid Calvinistic doctrine on a lonely and imaginative child. N.Y.

Gosse, Edmund William 7–36407/3

GOYA. Calvert, Albert Frederick. Goya: a biography and appreciation (Span. ser.) 1908. 194p. illus. Lane $1.50 n

Biographical sketch and list of the artist's works with descriptive notes and indication where they may be found. Contains 612 reproductions of his paintings, etchings and lithographs.

Goya Lucientes, Francesco 8–13747/2

GRECO, EL. Calvert, Albert Frederick, & Gallichan, Mrs C. G. (H.) El Greco (Span. ser.) 1909. 188p. illus. Lane $1.50 n

Presentation of artist's life and work. Prefatory chapter on the development of Spanish painting during the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries. 136 reproductions of El Greco's paintings.

Greco, El 9–17456/2

Grenfell, Wilfred Thomason. Adrift on an ice-pan. 1909. 68p. illus. Houghton 75c n

Simple and modest recital of author's experiences and emotions while drifting out to sea for a day and a night on a block of "sish," or crushed ice. Biographical sketch by C. J. Blake. N.Y.

Grenfell, Wilfred Thomason || Labrador 9–16853/4

GRIEG. Finck, Henry Theophilus. Grieg and his music. 1909. 317p. illus. Lane $2.50 n

First English biography. The facts, presented by means of letters, conversations, authentic anecdotes, etc., afford a vivid picture of the Norwegian composer himself and bring us in contact with his contemporaries, Ole Bull, Björnson, Ibsen and Liszt. N.Y.

Grieg, Edvard Hagerup 9–15889/2

HALS. Davies, Gerald Stanley. Frans Hals (Great masters) 1904. 144p. Macmillan $1.75 n

Approximate chronologies of life and most important works. List of prices at sales in the last century and a half. Pittsburgh.

Hals, Frans 7–38021/2

HAMILTON. Hamilton, Allan McLane. Intimate life of Alexander Hamilton. 1910. 483p. illus. Scribner $3.50 n

This biography, by Hamilton's grandson, contains little new material of importance and disputes none of the generally accepted facts of Hamilton's career. Its value lies in its detail and its portrayal of Hamilton's domestic and social life.

Hamilton, Alexander 10–22964/2

HANDEL. Streatfeild, Richard Alexander. Handel (New lib. of music) 1909. 366p. illus. Lane $2.50 n

Chief events of Handel's career and a critical analysis of his works, tracing his great personality in his music. Thorough, competent and painstaking as a critical study, valuable in its comparisons.

Handel, Georg Friedrich 10–6117/2

HARTE. Merwin, Henry Childs. The life of Bret Harte. 1911. 362p. illus. Houghton $3 n

Detailed, authoritative biography, dealing less with Harte's personality than with his work and the social and economic conditions under which it was produced. Full analyses of his style, vocabulary, verse forms and methods of work.

Harte, Bret 11–25559/2

Hearn, Lafcadio. Life and letters, by Elizabeth Bisland. 1906. 2v. illus. Houghton $6 n

Enthusiastic biography followed by letters chronologically arranged without criticisms or comments. "Probably the most valuable [letters]

since the publication of Fitzgerald's." Nation. Japanese letters (Houghton, 1910, 468p., $3 n, 10-29701) are selected from those to Basil Chamberlain, W. B. Mason and Hearn's wife, 1890-1904. Rich in criticism of contemporary writers, in interpretation of Japanese life and self-revelation.

Hearn, Lafcadio 6–43374/2

HOMER, WINSLOW. Downes, William Howe. Life and works of Winslow Homer. 1911. 306p. illus. 26cm Houghton $6 n

Very full and appreciative biography and descriptions of the larger number of his paintings, often with the circumstances attending their execution. Reproductions in sepia of over 100 paintings and sketches.

Homer, Winslow 11–27318/2

HUDSON. Janvier, Thomas Allibone. Henry Hudson. 1909. 148p. illus. Harper 75c n

Brief statement of Hudson's aims and achievements, with a newly discovered partial record, now first published, of the trial and punishment of the mutineers by whom he was abandoned to his death.

Hudson, Henry 9–22208/2

HUXLEY. Davis, James Richard Ainsworth. Thomas H. Huxley (Eng. men of sci.) 1907. 288p. Dutton $1 n

Excellent biography, recommended for libraries which cannot afford the Life and letters of Thomas Henry Huxley, by his son (in A. L. A. Catalog), on which it is based.

Huxley, Thomas Henry W7–72/2

IBSEN. Gosse, Edmund William. Ibsen (Lit. lives) 1908. 244p. Scribner $1 n

Temperate but appreciative study of Ibsen's peculiar genius, the influences molding it and its significance in the development of Norwegian literature and culture. N.Y.

Ibsen, Hendrik 7–41565/2

IRVING. Brereton, Austin. Life of Henry Irving. 1908. 2v. illus. Longmans $6.50 n

Authoritative record of the actor's professional life and triumphs, setting forth all essential facts with much fulness of detail and in admirable order. Inspired throughout by the zeal of ardent friendship and almost unqualified admiration which detracts from the value of an excellent piece of work. Nation.

Irving, Sir Henry 8–35755/2

JACKSON, ANDREW. Bassett, John Spencer. The life of Andrew Jackson. 1911. 2v. illus. maps. Doubleday $5 n

Authoritative, exhaustive work, making use of recently disclosed material which has made possible a better general history of Jackson's time and a clearer account of his influence on later times than in earlier works.

Jackson, Andrew 11–26978/2

JACKSON, THOMAS JONATHAN. White, Henry Alexander. Stonewall Jackson (Amer. cris. biog.) 1909. 378p. illus. map. Jacobs $1.25 n

An excellent biography, based on original sources, earlier lives and the Official records. Will answer the average library need better than the Life and letters by Mrs Jackson (in A. L. A. Catalog) and is more valuable on the military side.

Jackson, Thomas Jonathan 9–3196/2

JEANNE D' ARC. Lang, Andrew. The Maid of France. 1908. 379p. illus. maps. Longmans $3.50 n

Exhaustive, scholarly biography, the most complete and critical in English. The author's issue with Anatole France's conception of the Maid in his Vie de Jeanne d'Arc gives the narrative a controversial tone that detracts from its interest for general reading.

Jeanne d'Arc 9–8027/2

JEFFERSON. Wilson, Francis. Joseph Jefferson; reminiscences of a fellow player. 1906. 354p. illus. Scribner $2 n

Affectionate and minute, if somewhat undiscriminating appreciation of Jefferson as actor, author and man. Interesting chapter on the tour of the all-star cast of "The rivals" of which Jefferson and Wilson were members. N.Y.

Jefferson, Joseph 6–13071/2

Jewett, Sarah Orne. Letters; ed. by Annie Fields. 1911. 259p. illus. Houghton $1.50 n

Simple and informal letters to friends, containing much interesting comment on the literature and writers of the past 30 years, and many charming descriptions of persons and places.

Jewett, Sarah Orne 11–26427/2

Johnson, Tom Loftin. My story; ed. by E. J. Hauser. 1911. 326p. illus. Huebsch $2 n

Autobiographic chapters, written during the last few months of Mr Johnson's life, giving the details of the author's long fight against "privilege," his ardent championship of the George single-tax movement and his work in Congress and as mayor of Cleveland.

Johnson, Tom Loftin 11–35975/2

KELVIN. Gray, Andrew. Lord Kelvin: an account of his scientific life and work (Eng. men of sci.) 1908. 320p. illus. Dutton $1 n

The life of William Thomson, baron Kelvin of Largs (Macmillan, 1910, 2v., $7.50 n, A10-180) is heavy in style, but more valuable to scientists as an authoritative, technical record of Kelvin's work. In the preparation of the greater part of it he cooperated.

Kelvin, William Thomson, 1st baron 9–8091/2

KNOX. Cowan, Henry. John Knox, the hero of the Scottish reformation (Heroes of the reform.) 1905. 404p. illus. Putnam $1.50 n

Knox, John 5–16159/2

LA FARGE. Cortissoz, Royal. John La Farge: a memoir and a study. 1911. 268p. illus. Houghton $4 n

Intimate and sympathetic memoir, by a friend of many years' standing, with many of La Farge's opinions on art and men quoted in his own words. The meagerness of definite detail makes it of slight value to the student.

La Farge, John 11–11181/2

LAMB. Lucas, Edward Verrall. Life of Charles Lamb. 1905. 2v. illus. Putnam $4.50 n

Tells the story of Charles and Mary Lamb as far as possible in their own and their contemporaries' words. An exhaustive compilation, with editorial comment, rather than a systematic biography. Jerrold's Charles Lamb (Bell's miniature ser. of great writers, Macmillan, 1905, 112p., 50c, W6-78) is an excellent introduction to the study of Lamb, briefly sketching his life and writings.

Lamb, Charles 5–32061/2

LANIER. Mims, Edwin. Sidney Lanier. 1905. 386p. illus. Houghton $1.50 n

Lanier, Sidney 5–34966/2

LECKY. Lecky, Mrs Elisabeth (van Dedem) Memoir of the Right Hon. William Edward Hartpole Lecky. 1909. 432p. illus. Longmans $2.50 n

Compact biography based on his diaries and correspondence, conveying an adequate idea of his intellectual activities and political convictions but little of his personality. "A memoir embodying many of his own qualities of tact, proportion and reserve." Nation.

Lecky, William Edward Hartpole 9–28242/2

Lee, Robert Edward. Recollections and letters. 1904. 461p. illus. Doubleday $2.50 n

Gives some important new information on Lee's military service, but more on his post-bellum life and work as teacher. Page's Robert E. Lee, man and soldier (Scribner, 1911, 734p., $2.50 n, 11–31778) is a picturesque but uncritical biography, dealing more with Lee's military career and with a glowing picture of Virginia life than does Bradford's Lee, the American (Houghton, 1912, 324p., $2.50 n, 12–7039), which is less a biography than a well documented study of Lee's personality. Admirable incidental character study of Davis.

Lee, Robert Edward 4–27138/2

LESCHETITZKI. Hullah, Annette. Theodor Leschetizky (Liv. masters of music) 1906. 85p. illus. Lane $1 n

The story of this concentrated career is well and clearly told by Miss Hullah, who makes the discriminating point that Leschetizky is emphatically an individualist in his work. Dial.

Leschetitzki, Theodor 6–11381/2

LINCOLN. Hill, Frederick Trevor. Lincoln, the lawyer. 1906. 332p. illus. Century $2 n

Lincoln, Abraham 6–34845/2

—— Morgan, James. Abraham Lincoln, the boy and the man. 1908. 435p. illus. Macmillan $1.50 n

Simple, straightforward story lacking the literary quality of Nicolay and Hay's Short life (in A. L. A. Catalog) but suited to a less cultured class of readers. Chapter "A course in Lincoln" is a good select bibliography.

Lincoln, Abraham. Analytic: Bibl. 8–28434/3

—— Rothschild, Alonzo. Lincoln, master of men. Anniversary ed. 1908. 531p. illus. Houghton $1.50 n

Lincoln, Abraham 6–11666/2

LISZT. Hervey, Arthur. Franz Liszt and his music. 1911. 176p. Lane $1.50 n

Admirable account of Liszt the man, composer, conductor and teacher, giving most space to Liszt's compositions and the influence of his personality. The most valuable single English volume for the student. Huneker's Franz Liszt (Scribner, 1911, 458p., $2 n, 11–26220) is a brilliant study of certain aspects of Liszt's art and character. List of his pupils with comment on his most famous interpreters.

Liszt, Franz 11–19600/2

LOUISA, queen of Prussia. Moffat, Mary Maxwell. Queen Louisa of Prussia. 1906. 323p. illus. Dutton $3 n

Popular, sympathetic study of the famous queen, her domestic life, character and influence on political and national development. Based on German authorities and the queen's letters. N.Y.

Louisa, queen of Prussia 6-43228/2

Low, Will Hicok. A chronicle of friendships, 1873-1900. 1908. 507p. illus. Scribner $3 n

Records the fortunate friendships of the artist's student days in Paris and Barbizon and in later years in the United States and England. Besides the two who occupy the largest place—Robert Louis Stevenson and R. A. M. Stevenson—there are interesting paragraphs or chapters relating to many others, among them Saint Gaudens, Henley and Jean François Millet.

Low, Will Hicok || Stevenson, Robert Louis || Stevenson, Robert Alan Mowbray 8-30913/5

LOWELL. Greenslet, Ferris. James Russell Lowell, his life and work. 1905. 309p. illus. Houghton $1.50 n

An interesting and useful résumé of life, with critical estimate. Based on Lowell's Letters and Scudder's authorized Life (in A. L. A. Catalog) which are still of chief importance. N.Y.

Lowell, James Russell 5-32880/2

LUTHER. McGiffert, Arthur Cushman. Martin Luther, the man and his work. 1911. 397p. illus. Century $3 n

The most convenient and trustworthy treatment of Luther which the general reader can now find in the English language. Nation.

Luther, Martin 11-28669/2

LYON. Gilchrist, Beth Bradford. Life of Mary Lyon. 1910. 462p. illus. Houghton $1.25 n

Portrays the development of a pioneer of woman's higher education and the founder of Mt. Holyoke College. Author, a Mt. Holyoke graduate, writes enthusiastically and has availed herself of all possible sources. N.Y.

Lyon, Mary 10-12174/2

McCarthy, Justin. An Irishman's story. 1904. 435p. illus. Macmillan $2.50 n

Supplements his Reminiscences (in A. L. A. Catalog) but of independent interest, giving account of early journalistic career in Ireland and England, and political life in Parliament during home rule agitation.

McCarthy, Justin 4-21605/3

MACDOWELL. Gilman, Lawrence. Edward MacDowell. 1909. 190p. illus. Lane $1.50 n

Very satisfactory account of MacDowell's life and an adequate survey of his work. Mr Gilman has had access to correspondence and other writings and has quoted freely from the Columbia lectures.

MacDowell, Edward Alexander 9-609/2

Mahan, Alfred Thayer. From sail to steam; recollections of naval life. 1907. 325p. Harper $2.25 n

Reminiscences of Captain Mahan's naval career (1856-96) involving an informal history of the reconstruction in policy and equipment which our navy has undergone. N.Y.

Mahan, Alfred Thayer || U. S.—Navy 7-32861/4

MANET. Duret, Theodore. Manet and the French impressionists; tr. by J. E. C. Flitch. 1910. 280p. illus. 26cm Lippincott $3.75 n

Biographical and critical sketch, with descriptions and estimates of the contributions of other impressionists to the struggle of the new school against classic tradition.

Manet, Edouard || Painting, French || Impressionism (art) 10-9647/4

MANSFIELD. Wilstach, Paul. Richard Mansfield; the man and the actor. 1908. 500p. illus. Scribner $3.50 n

Complete as a record of Mansfield's achievement and invariably sympathetic in revelation of his generous and stormy personality, but too colored by enthusiasm to be the final and authoritative pronouncement on his art. N.Y.

Winter's Life and art of Richard Mansfield (Moffat, 1910, 2v., $6 n, 10-3307) though less full as biography, is more authoritative, more valuable as criticism, more penetrating in analysis of Mansfield's genius, limitations and personality.

Mansfield, Richard 8-31676/2

Markino, Yoshio. A Japanese artist in London. 1910. 222p. illus. Jacobs $2 n

The amusing and pathetic account of the author's 13-year struggle with poverty in London, and his impressions of city and people. His picturesque Japanese-English enhances the interest. Illustrated by himself in color and black and white. N.Y.

Markino, Yoshio 10-15156/3

MARX. Spargo, John. Karl Marx; his life and work. 1910. 359p. illus. Huebsch $2.50 n

Marx, Karl 10-11665/2

MILLET. Tomson, Arthur. Jean François Millet and the Barbizon school. New ed. 1905. 231p. illus. Macmillan $2.25 n

Describes Millet's life and work, and also those of Dupre, Diaz and Rousseau. Chapter on "The influence of the romantic school."

Millet, Jean François || Barbizon school 4–489/3

MIRABEAU. Fling, Fred Morrow. Mirabeau and the French revolution. 1908. v. 1, illus. Putnam $3.50 n

Mirabeau, Honoré Gabriel Riquetti, comte de || French Revolution 8–25730/3

Mistral, Frédéric. Memoirs; tr. by C. E. Maude. 1907. 336p. illus. Doubleday $3.50 n

Delightful narrative, revealing a refreshing and magnetic personality, of the early years (1830-59) of the Provençal poet. N.Y.

Mistral, Frédéric 8–8543/2

Modjeska, Helena. Memories and impressions. 1910. 571p. illus. Macmillan $4 n

Interesting for its self-revelation of a fine and highly gifted personality and valuable for the light it throws on the true secret of the writer's brilliant artistic success. Nation.

Modjeska, Helena (Countess Chlapowski) 10–24258/2

MOLIERE. Matthews, James Brander. Molière, his life and his works. 1910. 385p. illus. Scribner $3 n

Molière, Jean Baptiste Poquelin 10–23659/2

MONTAIGNE. Dowden, Edward. Michel de Montaigne (Fr. men of let.) 1905. 383p. Lippincott $1.50 n

Admirable biography "told clearly and simply, as far as possible in Montaigne's own words. No handbook better fitted for readers who have not the time to read the essays themselves." Acad.

Montaigne, Michel Eyquem de 5–26750/2

MOORE. Gwynn, Stephen Lucius. Thomas Moore (Eng. men of let.) 1905. 204p. Macmillan 75c n

Compact, readable presentation of a magnetic and engaging personality, next to Byron the most popular poet of his day. N.Y.

Moore, Thomas 5–2125/2

Morris, Clara. Life of a star. 1906. 363p. Doubleday $1.50 n

Vivacious, entertaining recollections of the later career of the actress and of friends off and on the stage. Flowery and sentimental in style but kindly in spirit.

Morris, Clara 6–16284/3

MORRIS, WILLIAM. Noyes, Alfred. William Morris (Eng. men of let.) 1909. 156p. Macmillan 75c n

Contains the essentials of Morris' life and able analyses of his writings. Will serve admirably where so extensive a work as Mackail's (in A. L. A. Catalog) is not needed.

Morris, William 9–5502/2

MURILLO. Calvert, Albert Frederick. Murillo: a biography and appreciation (Span. ser.) 1907. 186p. illus. Lane $1.50 n

Murillo, Bartolmé Estéban 7–40879/2

NAPOLEON I, emperor of the French. Johnston, Robert Matteson. Napoleon; a short biography. New ed. 1909. 248p. maps. Holt $1.25 n

Popular history of the best class—scholarly, readable, acute. An excellent introduction to Napoleonic literature. Nation.

Napoleon I, emperor of the French || France—History—Consulate and empire, 1799–1815 (1904 ed.) 4–7562/3

—— Napoleon I, emperor of the French. The Corsican; a diary of Napoleon's life in his own words; comp. and tr. by R. M. Johnston. 1910. 526p. Houghton $1.75 n

Passages selected from letters, state papers and conversations, and arranged chronologically under the dates to which they refer. They form an interesting but incomplete and disconnected autobiography of decided interest as a psychological study.

Napoleon I, emperor of the French 10–29715/2

NAPOLEON III, emperor of the French. Simpson, Frederick Arthur. Rise of Louis Napoleon. 1909. 384p. illus. Putnam $3.50 n

Study of Napoleon III's early life (1814-48) giving an impartial account of his character and abilities and saying the final word on the curious events which preceded his election to the presidency.

Napoleon III, emperor of the French || France—History—Restoration, 1814–1848 10–9486/3

NEWMAN. Barry, William Francis. Newman (Lit. lives) 1904. 225p. illus. Scribner $1 n

Newman, John Henry, cardinal 4–6911/2

NIGHTINGALE. Tooley, Sarah A. Life of Florence Nightingale. 1905. 344p. illus. Macmillan $1.75 n

Enthusiastic and vivacious biography, giving a full account of Miss Nightingale's training, work in the Crimea and her life, friendships and literary work to 1905.

Nightingale, Florence 5–6960/2

OWEN. Podmore, Frank. Robert Owen: a biography. 1907. 2v. illus. Appleton $6 n

Owen, Robert 7–11019/2

PADEREWSKI. Baughan, Edward Algernon. Ignaz Jan Paderewski (Liv. masters of music) 1908. 92p. illus. Lane $1 n

Brief biography, presenting a connected narrative of his life and dealing with his personal traits, his views on music and teaching, his characteristics and standing as a pianist and as a composer.

Paderewski, Ignace Jan 8–35168/2

PALMER. Palmer, George Herbert. Life of Alice Freeman Palmer. 1908. 354p. illus. Houghton $1.50 n

Exceptionally interesting biography, no less successful in delineating, with singular frankness and delicacy, the personality and home-life of a charming and womanly nature, than in following Mrs Palmer's work before and after her marriage, in many educational positions and missions of importance and responsibility.

Palmer, Mrs Alice Elvira (Freeman) 8–12560/2

PATER. Benson, Arthur Christopher. Walter Pater (Eng. men of let.) 1906. 226p. Macmillan 75c n

Pater, Walter Horatio 6–16768/2

PATMORE. Gosse, Edmund William. Coventry Patmore (Lit. lives) 1905. 213p. illus. Scribner $1 n

Excellent biography, containing estimates of character, aims and rank, and of considerable value for glimpses of Tennyson and the prerapbaelites.

Patmore, Coventry 5–5914/2

PATRICK, Saint. Bury, John Bagnell. Life of St Patrick and his place in history. 1905. 404p. maps. Macmillan $3.25 n

Careful and minute research has not quenched a bold and vivid imagination. The constant presence of a wide and just sense of historical perspective does not dwarf the particular interest. Acad.

Patrick, Saint 5–35681/2

PEPYS. Lubbock, Percy. Samuel Pepys (Lit. lives) 1909. 284p. illus. Scribner $1 n

Well constructed, vivacious account by the sometime Pepysian librarian at Magdalene College, Oxford. Red letter days of Samuel Pepys (ed. by E. F. Allen, Sturgis, 1910, 299p., $1.25 n, 11–35158) contains well chosen selections from the diary, grouped under subjects. Will interest readers who would not care for the entire diary.

Pepys, Samuel 9–31736/2

PHILLIPS. Sears, Lorenzo. Wendell Phillips. 1909. 379p. Doubleday $1.50 n

Founded largely on the biography of Martyn (in A. L. A. Catalog) with additional letters and reminiscences furnished by friends. More conservative and less full of biographical detail than the early lives and defining more clearly the value and significance of Phillips' public services.

Phillips, Wendell 9–23991/2

PITT. Rosebery, Archibald Philip Primrose, 5th earl of. Lord Chatham, his early life and connections. 1910. 480p. Harper $3 n

Brilliant study of Pitt's personality and political activities from early boyhood to 1756. A distinct contribution to the political history of the period.

Pitt, William, 1st earl of Chatham 10–28035/2

PITT, THE YOUNGER. Rose, John Holland. William Pitt and national revival. 1911. 655p. Macmillan $6 n

This and the later volume, William Pitt and the great war (Macmillan, 1911, 596p., $6 n, 12–35186) form a brilliant and scholarly biography of Pitt the Younger, in which much recently accessible material has been used to give great fulness to the later period of his life.

Pitt, William, the Younger 11–35752/2

Pryor, Mrs Sara Agnes (Rice) My day; reminiscences of a long life. 1909. 454p. illus. Macmillan $2.25 n

Describes with charm and sincerity a happy girlhood in Virginia in the 50's, bravely endured humiliations and hardships during the Civil War and later activities in the best social life in New York. Supplements her Reminiscences of peace and war (in 973.7)

Pryor, Mrs Sara Agnes (Rice) || Pryor, Roger Atkinson 9–28141/3

RABELAIS. Tilley, Arthur Augustus. François Rabelais (Fr. men of let.) 1907. 388p. Lippincott $1.50 n

Rabelais, François 7–29040/2

REMBRANDT. Michel, Emile, ed. Rembrandt Harmensz van Rijn. 1907. 118p. illus. 33cm Lane $7.50 n

An appreciation of the master's work and a sympathetic and interesting account of his life. 40 exceptionally fine photogravure reproductions of principal paintings, and 30 of his etchings, pen and wash drawings, black, red and black, and sepia drawings.

Rembrandt Hermanszoon van Rijn 8–4487/2

RENAN. Barry, William Francis. Ernest Renan (Lit. lives) 1905. 240p. illus. Scribner $1 n

A thoughtful study of Renan's life history, influence and work. Adequate for estimate of character and literary value but lacking on the social side.

Renan, Ernest 5–12361/2

REYNOLDS. Armstrong, Sir Walter. Sir Joshua Reynolds, first president of the Royal academy. Popular ed. 1905. 236p. illus. Scribner $3.50 n

Excellent critical life, presenting Reynolds' character justly and estimating his work calmly.

Reynolds, Sir Joshua (1900 ed.) 4–7310/2

RHODES. Fuller, Sir Thomas Ekins. The Right Honorable Cecil John Rhodes. 1910. 276p. illus. Longmans $1.60 n

An account of Rhodes' public career in South Africa, something of his dealings with his associates and glimpses of his private life. Written by a close political and personal friend, it shows great admiration of the man and his ability but also a just recognition of his mistakes and inherent weaknesses.

Rhodes, Cecil John 10–21156/2

RODIN. Mauclair, Camille. Auguste Rodin, the man, his ideas, his works; tr. by Clementina Black. 1905. 329p. illus. Dutton $4 n

Enthusiastic account, which has received the approval of the sculptor, whose own explanation of his aims and theories is a valuable feature. Lawton's Life and work of Auguste Rodin (Scribner, 1907, 307p., $3.75 n, 7–13425) is an able, painstaking record based on talks with Rodin and on documents in Rodin's possession. A briefer life by the same author (Kennerley, 1908, 190p., $1 n, 8–35518) is not an abridgment of the former work though written from the same viewpoint and will answer the smaller library's need.

Rodin, Auguste 5–42535/2

ROOSEVELT. Leupp, Francis Ellington. The man Roosevelt: a portrait sketch (Appleton's hist. lives ser.) 1904. 341p. Appleton $1.25 n

Devoted chiefly to Roosevelt's public life to 1904, enlivened by many anecdotes and written by a trained but uncritical observer, who has long been the ex-president's intimate friend. Morgan's Theodore Roosevelt (Macmillan, 1907, 324p., $1.50 n, 7–31182) is a straightforward, rather mechanical narrative of the episodes of Roosevelt's life, intended for older boys and young men.

Roosevelt, Theodore 4–3970/2

ROSSETTI. Benson, Arthur Christopher. Dante Gabriel Rossetti (Eng. men of let.) 1904. 238p. Macmillan 75c n

Rossetti, Dante Gabriel 4–8299/2

—— Marillier, Henry Currie. Dante Gabriel Rossetti: an illustrated memorial of his art and life. 3d ed. 1904. 179p. illus. Macmillan $3 n

Rossetti, Dante Gabriel 12–35681/2

ROUSSEAU. Lemaitre, Jules. Jean Jacques Rousseau; tr. by Jeanne Mairet. 1907. 365p. Doubleday $2.50 n

Enthusiastic study by a man who greatly admires Rousseau, but has faithfully presented all facts which are necessary for a complete picture of the man's character and mind.

Rousseau, Jean Jacques 7–39534/2

RUBENS. Rea, Hope. Peter Paul Rubens (Great masters) 1905. 138p. illus. Macmillan $1.75 n

Rubens, Sir Peter Paul W7–61/2

RUSKIN. Benson, Arthur Christopher. Ruskin; a study in personality. 1911. 323p. Putnam $1.50 n

Sympathetic, yet dispassionate and critical interpretation of the man and his genius. As a biography compares favorably with Harrison (in

A. L. A. Catalog) In the fuller life by Cook (Macmillan, 1911, 2v., $7 n, 12–35180) copious use has been made of well chosen material from Ruskin's letters, diaries and note-books, in giving a detailed account of every phase of his life.
Ruskin, John 11–15332/2

—— Ruskin, John. Letters to Charles Eliot Norton; ed. by C. E. Norton. 1904. 2v. illus. Houghton $4 n

Record of the perplexities of a great and generous soul, the troubles of a tender heart, the spendthrift use and at last the failure of exceptional powers. Charles Eliot Norton.
Ruskin, John || Norton, Charles Eliot 4–33240/3

SAINT-GAUDENS. Hind, Charles Lewis. Augustus Saint-Gaudens. 1908. 47p. illus. 29½cm Lane $5 n

Contains an appreciative, uncritical essay, chronologies of the sculptor's life and works, and 47 excellent photographic reproductions, many of unfamiliar subjects. Cortissoz's Augustus Saint Gaudens (Houghton, 1907, 85p., $7.50 n, 7–40526) is an important critical monograph, discriminating and authoritative. Gives fewer biographical details than Hind, but should be owned by all libraries able to afford it.
Saint-Gaudens, Augustus 8–29874/2

SAINTE-BEUVE. Harper, George McLean. Charles-Augustin Sainte-Beuve (Fr. men of let.) 1909. 388p. Lippincott $1.50 n

Scholarly study, showing extensive research and familiarity with the period. The first English work.
Saint-Beuve, Charles Augustin 9–9445/2

SAND. Doumic, René. George Sand: some aspects of her life and writings; tr. by Alys Hallard. 1910. 311p. illus. Putnam $2.75 n

Sand, George, pseud. 10–10715/2

Schaff, Morris. Spirit of old West Point, 1858–1862. 1907. 289p. illus. Houghton $3 n

Idealized but essentially truthful estimate of the molding influences which transform crude boys into "soldiers and gentlemen." Deals in happiest reminiscent vein with the years 1858-62 and follows northern and southern classmates into the Civil War. N.Y.
Schaff, Morris || U. S. Military academy, West Point 7–32862/4

Schumann, Robert Alexander. Letters; selected and ed. by Dr Karl Storck, tr. by Hannah Bryant. 1907. 299p. Dutton $3 n

These letters have decided interest and literary charm, are well edited and translated and have special value for students of music.
Schumann, Robert Alexander 8–8848/2

Schurz, Carl. Reminiscences. 1907–8. 3v. illus. map. Doubleday $9 n

Schurz as German student and revolutionist (1848), American diplomat, Union general and statesman. Closes in 1869 with the beginning of his career in the Senate. Later life summarized by Frederick Bartlett and W. A. Dunning. Mirrors a character distinguished for keen judgment, zest in affairs and persistent idealism.
Schurz, Carl 7–36232/2

SCOTT. Lang, Andrew. Sir Walter Scott (Lit. lives) 1906. 216p. illus. Scribner $1 n

Though Lang modestly disclaims doing more than compress Lockhart's great book into small space, Scott's admirers will find much that is new and more that is freshly put in this biography. Acad.
Scott, Sir Walter, bart. 6–11671/2

—— Skene, James. Memories of Sir Walter Scott: the Skene papers; ed. by Basil Thomson. 1909. 256p. Lond. Murray 7/6

Skene's friendship with Scott extended over nearly the whole of Scott's manhood. Lockhart saw his papers but made virtually no use of them. They reveal nothing of historical importance but add greatly to an understanding and appreciation of Scott's character.
Scott, Sir Walter, bart. 10–25395/2

SEVIGNE. Aldis, Janet. Queen of letter writers, Marquise de Sévigné, Dame de Bourbilly, 1626–1696 (Memoir ser.) 1907. 313p. illus. Putnam $3 n

Sévigné, Marie (de Rabutin Chantal), marquise de 8–9535/2

Shaler, Nathaniel Southgate. Autobiography, with a supplementary memoir by his wife. 1909. 481p. illus. Houghton $4 n

The life story of a many-sided, interesting personality, nearly equally divided between autobiography (to 1859) and Mrs Shaler's memoirs. A distinct contribution to the literature of scientific investigation in this country.
Shaler, Nathaniel Southgate 9–16433/2

SHARP. Sharp, Mrs Elizabeth Amelia (Sharp) William Sharp (Fiona Macleod), a memoir. 1910. 433p. illus. Duffield $3.75 n

Autobiographic record compiled from the author's correspondence and diaries, to which Mrs Sharp has added only a few details to prove that "Fiona Macleod" was not merely a pen name, but the expression of a secondary personality.

Sharp, William 10–23645/2

SHAW. Chesterton, Gilbert Keith. George Bernard Shaw. 1909. 249p. Lane $1.50 n

Clever chapters on Shaw as puritan, progressive, critic, author and philosopher. Little biographical information, but sharp criticism of his works, tempered by eulogy. Henderson's George Bernard Shaw, his life and works (Stewart & Kidd, 1911, 528p., $5 n, 11–31884) is a Boswellian biography, authorized by Mr Shaw, who has contributed to it what he calls a "mass of unceremonious and irresponsible autobiography." Despite its questionable taste the book is a detailed and accurate account of the various phases of art, economics and literature in which Mr Shaw has interested himself.

Shaw, George Bernard W9–321/2

SHERMAN, JOHN. Burton, Theodore Elijah. John Sherman (Amer. statesmen) 1906. 449p. Houghton $1.25 n

Sherman, John 6–43551/2

Sherman, William Tecumseh. Home letters; ed. by M. A. De W. Howe. 1909. 412p. Scribner $2 n

Letters to Mrs Sherman from 1837 (West Point) to 1888, often dramatic in interest and giving frank first impressions of men and events rather than intimate personal details.

Sherman, William Tecumseh 9–26989/2

SIDDONS. Parsons, Mrs Florence Mary. The incomparable Siddons. 1909. 298p. illus. Putnam $3.50 n

Orderly and detailed account, evolved from a mass of contemporary theatrical literature. While it adds little to the knowledge of Mrs Siddons' life, it furnishes interesting information on dramatic affairs of the period.

Siddons, Sarah 10–35142/2

SMITH, ADAM. Hirst, Francis Wrigley. Adam Smith (Eng. men of let.) 1904. 240p. Macmillan 75c n

Smith, Adam 4–29380/2

Smith, Goldwin. Reminiscences; ed. by Arnold Haultain. 1910. 477p. illus. Macmillan $3 n

Autobiography of a great educator, scholar and statesman, who has taken an active part in the public affairs of three countries, England, United States and Canada. His opinions of people are expressed with great candor, and often accompanied with good stories.

Smith, Goldwin 10–30096/2

SMITH, JOHN. Bradley, Arthur Granville. Captain John Smith (Eng. men of act.) 1905. 226p. Macmillan 75c n

Based on Smith's own narratives and dealing fully with his experiences in Virginia and with the Jamestown colony. Pittsburgh.

Smith, John W6–15/2

SMITH, SYDNEY. Russell, George William Erskine. Sydney Smith (Eng. men of let.) 1905. 242p. Macmillan 75c n

An adequate biography of the great Whig wit, shrewd and kindly as criticism, and told largely in Smith's own words.

Smith, Sydney 5–3812/2

Spencer, Herbert. Autobiography. 1904. 2v. illus. Appleton $5.50 n

A human document of extraordinary interest, the intimate record of a great thinker's life. Besides being the record of a life that was heroic in the finest sense, it is also a very human production and one of the most absolutely honest books ever written. Dial.

Duncan's Life and letters of Herbert Spencer (Appleton, 1908, 2v., $5 n, 8–17798), written at Spencer's request, covers the period after the Autobiography ceased. Includes much that appeared in the Autobiography but is more popular in style, and contains valuable new matter.

Spencer, Herbert 4–10065/2

—— Thomson, John Arthur. Herbert Spencer (Eng. men of sci.) 1906. 284p. Dutton $1 n

An eminent scientist's appreciation of Spencer's life, character and scientific work, with special attention to his position as an evolutionist. N.Y.

Spencer, Herbert W6–274/2

Stanley, Sir Henry Morton. Autobiography; ed. by Lady Stanley. Popular ed. 1911. 551p. illus. map. Houghton $2 n

Remarkably absorbing and inspiring record of early hardship bravely borne, and made to contribute to a splendid power of achievement. The unfinished autobiography is supplemented by extracts from his journals, letters and notebooks skilfully woven together by his wife. N.Y.

From the same plates as the original work (1909, $5), but less attractive in illustration and binding.

Stanley, Sir Henry Morton (1909 ed.) 9–28751/2

Stedman, Edmund Clarence. Life and letters, by Laura Stedman and G. M. Gould. 1910. 2v. illus. Moffat $7.50 n

Autobiography compiled by the poet's granddaughter from his letters, diaries and notes. The first volume follows the events of his life to his retirement from business in 1900; the second treats of his literary work, his friendships, personality and closing years.

Stedman, Edmund Clarence. Analytic: Bibl. 10–28977/3

Steiner, Edward Alfred. Against the current. 1910. 230p. Revell $1.25 n

Dramatic, appealing story of author's childhood as an orthodox Hebrew in Hungary, and of the unusual influences contributing to his mental and spiritual development and his passion for humanity. N.Y.

Steiner, Edward Alfred 10–24760/3

STEPHEN. Maitland, Frederic William. Life and letters of Leslie Stephen. 1906. 510p. illus. Putnam $4.50 n

Made up largely from Stephen's letters and the appreciative comments of his friends; a study of the man rather than a criticism of his work. Notable as a piece of literature and as a faithful and vital portrait. N.Y.

Stephen, Sir Leslie 7–438/2

STEPHENS. Pendleton, Louis Beauregard. Alexander H. Stephens (Amer. cris. biog.) 1908. 406p. Jacobs $1.25 n

Confined to a narrative of Stephens' main acts without attempting a philosophical explanation of either the man or the epoch. A good, popular account of the pathetic career of the vice-president of the Confederacy. Nation.

Stephens, Alexander Hamilton 8–11395/2

—— Stephens, Alexander Hamilton. Recollections; ed. with biographical study by M. L. Avary. 1910. 572p. Doubleday $2.50 n

Biographical sketch followed by the journal he kept while a prisoner at Fort Warren from May to October, 1865. A genuine contribution to the psychology of prison life and of historical value, giving his estimates of public men, his views on the constitutionality of the Confederacy, Davis' statesmanship, etc

Stephens, Alexander Hamilton 10–25800/2

STERNE. Cross, Wilbur Lucius. Life and times of Laurence Sterne. 1909. 555p. illus. Macmillan $2.50 n

Unlike Traill (in A. L. A. Catalog) concerns itself almost wholly with Sterne's life, discussing such of his works only as are autobiographical. The most complete biography available.

Sterne, Laurence 9–14130/2

Stevenson, Mrs Margaret Isabelle (Balfour) Letters from Samoa; ed. and arranged by M. C. Balfour. 1906. 340p. illus. Scribner $2 n

Detailed and intimate letters written by the mother of Robert Louis Stevenson during her journeys to Samoa and life in his family. N.Y.

Stevenson, Robert Louis 6–16297/2

STRAUSS. Newman, Ernest. Richard Strauss (Liv. masters of music) 1908. 144p. illus. Lane $1 n

Strauss, Richard 8–30389/2

SUMNER. Haynes, George Henry. Charles Sumner (Amer. cris. biog.) 1909. 469p. Jacobs $1.25 n

A good political biography of Sumner and a trustworthy sketch of Civil War history. More interestingly written and fuller on the personal side than Moorfield Storey's life (in A. L. A. Catalog)

Sumner, Charles 9–29781/2

Suttner, Bertha Felicie Sophia (Kinsky), freifrau von. Memoirs; the records of an eventful life. 1910. 2v. Ginn $4 n

Story of a romantic girlhood and ideally happy marriage, revealing a frank, engaging personality. Author's history of the peace movement, with which she has been prominently identified since 1887, and letters from Tolstoi, Nobel, Sienkiewicz, Björnson, Jules Simon and other noted Europeans add interest and value. N.Y.

Suttner, Bertha Felicie Sophia (Kinsky), freifrau von || Peace 10–24191/3

SWINBURNE. Woodberry, George Edward. Swinburne. 1912. 117p. Macmillan $1.25 n

First published in 1905 by McClure, 75c n.

Subtle and subjective study not so much of Swinburne's poetry as of his poetic impulse. Mr Swinburne will be fortunate if he ever again finds an interpreter so eloquent and sympathetic. Nation.

Swinburne, Algernon Charles 5–37592/2

Talbot, Ethelbert. My people of the plains. 1906. 264p. illus. Harper $1.75 n

Reminiscences of the author while bishop in Wyoming and Idaho during their pioneer days, full of life and interest. Adds a new chapter to the history of American missions.

Talbot, Ethelbert || West (The) 6–39742/4

TENNYSON. Ellison, Mrs Edith Nicholl. Child's recollections of Tennyson. 1906. 112p. illus. Dutton $1 n

Charming reminiscences of a privileged childhood on the Isle of Wight in intimate friendship with the Tennyson family. Told by the daughter of Dean Bradley of Westminster. N.Y.

Tennyson, Alfred Tennyson, 1st baron 6–23066/2

Terry, Ellen. Story of my life: recollections and reflections. 1908. 407p. illus. Doubleday $3.50 n

Reminiscences practically covering theatrical art in the last half-century, and having to do with many of England's most famous figures in art, literature and politics. Not wholly satisfactory as a life of Miss Terry but a breezy recital of experiences and frank, discriminating judgments of fellow actors.

Terry, Ellen || Irving, Sir Henry 8–36391/3

Thackeray, William Makepeace. Letters to an American family; with an introd. by L. D. Baxter. 1904. 193p. illus. Century $1.50 n

Thackeray, William Makepeace 4–17699/2

THOMAS, THEODORE. Thomas, Mrs Rose (Fay) Memoirs of Theodore Thomas. 1911. 569p. illus. Moffat $3 n

The most important, the most interesting, the most instructive, the most romantic book ever published on music in America, brimful of anecdotes and with flashlights on music in nearly all its phases. Nation.

Thomas, Theodore 11–29847/2

TINTORETTO. Phillipps, Evelyn March. Tintoretto (Classics of art ser.) 1911. 172p. illus. Scribner $4 n

The most detailed account of Tintoretto's life and work that has yet appeared, but no more discriminatingly critical than Osler (in A. L. A. Catalog) The size of the illustrations (61 plates) make them more valuable than those in Holborn (1903) or in Thode (1901) though they are not so representative as in the latter work.

Tintoretto, Jacopo Robusti, known as 11–35696/2

TITIAN. Gronau, Georg. Titian and his school (Lib. of art) 1904. 322p. illus. Scribner $2 n

Not so specialized as the standard biography by Crow and Cavalcaselle. It is tersely and vividly written, precisely the book for the general reader. Royal Cortissoz.

TOLSTOI. Dole, Nathan Haskell. The life of Count Lyof N. Tolstoi. 1911. 467p. illus. Crowell $2 n

Intimate and sympathetic but by no means blindly partisan biography, meant to be "rather a plain narration than an attempt to rectify or correct opinions and theories." Based chiefly on Tolstoi's supposedly autobiographic writings and the biographies by Maude, Behrs, Steiner and Birukoff. The best single-volume biography for American readers. The most comprehensive biography in English is Maude's Life of Tolstoy (Dodd, 1910, 2v., $6 n, A11–564), a large part of which was read and approved by Tolstoi himself.

Tolstoi, Liov Nikolaevich, graf 11–29393/2

TURGENEV. Lloyd, J. A. T. Two Russian reformers: Ivan Turgenev and Leo Tolstoy. 1911. 335p. illus. Lane $3.50 n

A sympathetic study of Turgenev, the early influences which shaped his conceptions of life and his real self as shown in his works, takes up two thirds of the volume, the rest of which is devoted to a similar study of Tolstoy, with some slight comparison of the two men.

Turgenev, Ivan Sergleevich. Analytic: Tolstoi, Liov Nikolaevich, graf 11–4137/3

VERROCCHIO. Cruttwell, Maud. Verrocchio (Lib. of art) 1904. 264p. illus. Scribner $2 n

The most accurate, impartial and complete study of the subject in English. "Written with equal knowledge and enthusiasm." Royal Cortissoz.

Verrocchio, Andrea del W5–4/2

VICTORIA, queen of Great Britain. Hird, Frank. Victoria, the woman. 1908. 410p. illus. Appleton $2.50 n

Sympathetic and intimate study of the personal life of the queen as daughter, wife, mother, friend and sovereign. Does not pretend to be exhaustive.

Victoria, queen of Great Britain 8–12577/2

Waddington, Mme Mary Alsop (King) Italian letters of a diplomat's wife: January–May, 1880; February–April, 1904. 1905. 324p. illus. Scribner $2.50 n

Two series of letters written from Rome, 1880–1904, to the author's American mother and sister. They describe audiences with popes, kings, queens and other interesting personages and give graphic pictures of life and society.

Waddington, Mme Mary Alsop (King) || Italy—Social life and customs 5–9291/4

WAGNER. Neumann, Angelo. Personal recollections of Wagner; tr. by Edith Livermore. 1908. 329p. illus. Holt $2.50 n

These recollections, covering 1876–83, are largely a recital of the author's relationship with

Wagner in the production of his dramas. Of greater value than many of the biographies but not a volume that will attract the casual reader. Wagner's My life (Dodd, 1911, 2v., $8.50 n, 11–16280) is an exceedingly frank and simple autobiography covering Wagner's life to 1864 only, thus containing nothing concerning his last 19 and most famous years.
Wagner, Richard 8–29008/2

Wallace, Lewis. Lew Wallace: an autobiography. 1906. 2v. illus. Harper $5 n

Vivid, dramatic and intensely interesting account of the author's early life and the battles and campaigns of the Civil War with which he was connected. An unsatisfactory compilation of letters, reports, etc., with explanatory comments by his wife, complete the account from 1864.
Wallace, Lewis 6–38539/2

WASHINGTON. Ford, Worthington Chauncey. George Washington (Beacon biog.) 1910. 169p. 14½cm Small 50c n

Small, compact biography considering the political and military career of Washington rather than his personality.
Washington, George 11–29/2

—— Wister, Owen. Seven ages of Washington. 1907. 263p. illus. Macmillan $2 n

The author concerns himself with the man, only incidentally with the soldier or statesman, but does not neglect background or the final impress upon history. A delightful biography giving a finished portrait, broad and vigorous in treatment.
Washington, George 7–38230/3

WELLINGTON. Fitchett, William Henry. The Great Duke. 1911. 2v. illus. maps. Scribner $3 n

Excellent popular life-story of Wellington from his birth to the end of the Waterloo campaign, with the briefest possible consideration of his later career.
Wellington, Arthur Wellesley, 1st duke of 12–4928/2

—— Morris, William O'Connor. Wellington, soldier and statesman, and the revival of the military power of England (Heroes of the nations) 1904. 398p. illus. maps. Putnam $1.50 n

By an acknowledged authority on the Napoleonic wars. Deals mainly with the military side of Wellington's career and discusses disputed questions of the Peninsular War and the Waterloo campaign. Pittsburgh.
Wellington, Arthur Wellesley, 1st duke of 4–30596/2

WESLEY. Winchester, Caleb Thomas. Life of John Wesley. 1906. 301p. illus. Macmillan $1.50 n

Wesley, John 6–6747/2

WHISTLER. Cary, Elisabeth Luther Works of James McNeill Whistler. 1907. 302p. illus. 25½cm Moffat $4 n

In eight short chapters the master's achievements in the several media in which he worked are surveyed and analyzed with rare insight, and the whole aspect and trend of his art set forth. Dial.
Whistler, James Abbott McNeill 7–3697/2

—— Pennell, Mrs Elizabeth (Robins), & Joseph. Life of James McNeill Whistler. New ed. 1911. 449p. illus. Lippincott $3.50

Cheap, 1v. edition of the authorized biography (Lippincott, 1908, 2v., $10 n, W8–190), based on material furnished by Whistler and his family and written with a sympathy and appreciation founded on intimate friendship. The excellent photogravure illustrations are less well produced than in the original edition, though several never before published have been added and many changes made.
Whistler, James Abbott McNeill A12–142/2

White, Andrew Dickson. Autobiography. 1905. 2v. Century $7.50 n

Recollections of half a century as educator, diplomatist and author, remarkable for versatility and charm. Estimates of noted men and views of public affairs are notable for their catholicity and sanity.
White, Andrew Dickson 5–8344/2

WHITMAN. Carpenter, George Rice. Walt Whitman (Eng. men of let.) 1909. 175p. Macmillan 75c n

Well balanced and eminently fair biography, in which Whitman's unusual rhythmical forms and his attitude toward certain subjects are treated with fulness, frankness, insight and discrimination. The best of the brief works, but not to be chosen before Bliss Perry's life (below) when a single volume must suffice.
Whitman, Walt 9–8067/2

—— Perry, Bliss. Walt Whitman: his life and work. 1906. 318p. illus. Houghton $1.50 n

Careful biographical and critical study, the most desirable for the single purchase for the public library. Altogether the volume will probably take its place as the sane and authoritative life of Whitman for many years to come. Nation.
Whitman, Walt 6–35721/2

WILLIAM I, prince of Orange. Putnam, Ruth. William the Silent, prince of Orange (1533–1584) and the revolt of the Netherlands (Heroes of the nations) 1911. 518p. illus. maps. Putnam $1.50 n

Trustworthy work based on the author's 2v. memoir (in A. L. A. Catalog) but entirely rearranged, rewritten and clarified on certain points by the use of material not obtainable in 1895.

William I, prince of Orange 11–15039/2

WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, king of England. Stenton, Frank Merry. William the Conqueror, and the rule of the Normans (Heroes of the nations) 1908. 518p. illus. maps. Putnam $1.50 n

This scholarly biography is a valuable supplement to Freeman's briefer work (in A. L. A. Catalog) It presents a more impartial view and makes use of the results of research made since Freeman's book was written.

William, the Conqueror, king of England || England—History—Normans, 1066–1154 8–31143/2

WILLIAMS. Carpenter, Edmund Janes. Roger Williams (Grafton hist. ser.) 1909. 253p. illus. Baker & T. $2 n

Williams, Roger 9–31830/2

Yung Wing. My life in China and America. 1909. 286p. Holt $2 n
